Mastermind of U.N. bombing says he wanted kidnap Kissinger

The Associated Press

NEW YORK — The alleged mastermind of a plot to bomb the United Nations said he was willing to kidnap Henry Kissinger as a bait to free those charged in the World Trade Center bombing, according to secretly taped conversations.

Several hundred pages of transcripts, reviewed by The Associated Press, give the clearest view of an alleged conspiracy that the prosecutors say included the bombing. Fifteen men will stand trial in a conspiracy case in September.

Four men were convicted last day in the World Trade Center bombing. They face up to life in prison without parole at their sentencing May 4.

The conversations were secretly recorded by Emad Salem, a government informant who is expected to be the prosecution's star witness in the coming trial.

So far, lawyers in the case have filed about 500 pages of the roughly 1,000 pages of transcripts in U.S. District Court in Manhattan. Several dozen pages have been made to news organizations in the past.

According to transcripts, a plot to assassinate Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak outside the Waldorf Astoria Hotel was thwarted when the FBI learned of the plans.

Sheik Omar Abdel-Rahman, 55-year-old blind Egyptian cleric, who prosecutors say inspired and authorized the conspirators, is among the men "to inflict damage to American Army."

Siddiq Ibrahim Siddiq, an alleged conspirator's alleged mastermind, wanted to kill a man because he thought he was an FBI informant. That man, Abdo Mohammed Haggag, is expected to testify against the other defendants.

Siddiq Ali suggested snuff attacks on Jewish leaders in Manhattan, including state Assemblyman Dov Hinkind, who at that point had pushed to have Sayyid A. Nosair retried for the killing of extremist Rabbi Meir Kahane. Nosair was convicted of the slaying and charged with the plot to bomb the United Nations.

When the defendants were arrested in the trade center case, Siddiq Ali suggested to Salem that they could kill some FBI agents in retaliation. He also said that if the defendants were sentenced to life in prison, "we'll hit them with missiles and we will take hostages."

William Kunstler, Siddiq's lawyer, said the defendants were manipulated by Salem.
