SAN ANTONIO — David Robinson scored 36 points and Dale Ellis added 22 to pace the San Antonio Spurs to a 111-103 victory over Orlando on Sunday.

Robinson and Ellis combined for 24 of San Antonio's 37 fourth-quarter points to guide a 16-point comeback in the last 14 minutes in the nationally televised game.

Robinson chipped in with 13 rebounds, seven assists and six blocked shots in his duel with Orlando center Shaquille O'Neal, who marked Magic team-high totals of 32 points and 11 rebounds on his 22nd birthday.

Orlando shot only 33 percent from the field in the fourth quarter as the Magic were outscored 37-17.

The Spurs took the lead for good on Ellis' rebound basket with 2:06 remaining. Robinson then added a basket and foul shot and two more foul shots.

"A loss is a loss," Edwards said. "You don't want to go out losing during senior day, but you just don't want to lose any game."

"I am more worried about us losing three games in a row," Edwards said the Aggies are playing the same way as they were when they won seven in a row during the first round of the season.

"The ball is just not bouncing our way right now," he said. "We just have to keep our heads up and start the tournament off well. Once the SWC tournament starts, our record will be 0-0."

Joe Wilbert was one of the keys for the Aggies during the season, but Wilbert has struggled in the last three games.

In the last three games, Wilbert has combined to score a total of 14 points, scoring five points against Tech, six points against Baylor and three points against Texas Christian.

Barone said he did not know what was wrong with Wilbert, but agreed with Edwards that the SWC tournament is a new start for A&M.

"We are trying to figure out what is wrong with Wilbert," Barone said. "We miss him, and for some reason he has not been able to contribute in the last few games."

"We just need to get over our slump and get into the tournament. The tournament is the new beginning for us."

Gonzalez

The Aggies opened the tournament with a 2-2 performance in pool play. The record included a 3-1 loss to Long Beach State.

A & M opened the bracket portion of the tournament Sunday against No. 9 Florida State and plodding for eight runs in a shutout win against No. 17 Notre Dame. The semifinal game included Gonzalez's second straight three-hit shutout in the 1-0 victory.

The Aggies, champions of the Aggie Invitational and Pepsi/UTA Intercollegiate Classic will now travel to Florida for the South Florida Classic on March 11 through 13 in Tampa and the Lady Seminole Invitational on March 18-20 along with match-ups against No. 9 Florida State and Virginia in Tallahassee.
