

Division of Student Affairs Women's Issues Programs for tion, a hearing will be conduc 'Depending on the serio

ness, it can range from a writte

Monday, March 28

Tables in MSC Foyer on various issues and programs related to Women. 11-2pm Scheduled tables include CDPE: The Rainbow Center, Rape Crisis Center, Sororities, Health Education Center of Beutel Health Center, Student Counseling Service, Recreational Sports, National Organization for Women student chapter and others.

Today's Women: Shaping Tomorrow through Literature, Art, Music and Dance 11:30-12:30pm in MSC Flagroom Performances and literature readings Sponsored by Committee on Multicultural Awareness

Getting in Touch with your Inner Self 12:00-1:00pm 315 Henderson Hall Advanced registration preferred by calling Laura Bettor at 845-4427 ext. 126

Sponsored by Student Counseling Service

Women and Nutrition 4:00-5:00pm Health Center room 016 Osteoporosis, PreMenstrual Syndrome and Eating Disorders Sponsored by Health Education Center, Student Health Services, Division of Student Affairs

Self Defense Class 7-8:30pm Room 212 MSC Video showing and demonstration of selfdefense techniques. Advance registration (helpful, but not required). Call 845-5826. Sponsored by University Police Department and Division of Student Affairs Gender Issues Committee

Take Back the Night--Rally and March 8:00-10:00pm, Sully's Statue Poetry, music, and speakers, all related to issues of women's rights and sexual assault. Sponsored by student chapter of National Organization for Women

Tuesday, March 29

Video Showing of American Management Association Working Women's Teleconference 12:00-2:30pm in 601 Rudder

Panel discussion to follow. Brown Bag with drinks provided. Register by calling 845-5826.

> Sponsored by the Division of Student Affairs Gender Issues Committee

Women and Sexuality: Methods of Contraception, STD's and HIV/AIDS 4:00-5:00pm Health Center, room 016

Presented by Sally Miller, Scott & White Clinic

Sponsored by Health Education Center, Student Health Services, Division of Student Affairs

Assertiveness Training Part I 5:00-7:00pm in Health Center Conference Room Advance registration preferred. Call 845-0280 Sponsored by CDPE: The Rainbow Center, Division of Student Affairs

Hate Crimes 7:00 pm 110 John J. Koldus Bldg. Speaker Diane Hardy Garcia, Texas Gay and Lesbian Rights Lobby

> Sponsored by Gay Lesbian Bisexual Aggies and Division of Student Affairs Gender Issues Committee

March 28-31, 1994

Wed. March 30 Women's Week Awards Presentation

for Outstanding Commitment to Women's Issues 10:00 am 201 MSC Reception and presentation of Award recipients in categories of Faculty, Support Staff, Administrator, Student, Student Organization, and Professional Staff

NOTE TIME CORRECTION FROM PREVIOUS CALENDARS Sponsored by Division of Student Affairs Gender Issues Committee

Food Games and Body Image 12:00-1:00pm in 315 Henderson Hall Advanced registration preferred by calling Laura Bettor at 845-4427 ext. 126 Sponsored by Student Counseling Service, Division of Student Affairs

Arm Yourself Against Breast Cancer 4:00-5:00pm 016 Health Center Sponsored by Eta Sigma Gamma and Health Education Center, Student Health Services

Assertiveness Training Part II 5:00-7:00pm in Health Center Conference Room Advance registration preferred. Call 845-0280. Sponsored by CDPE: The Rainbow Center, Division of Student Affairs

An Evening with Ruby Dee: Writer, Actress and Lecturer 7:00 pm Rudder Theatre Inspirational program on achievement of women in today's world. $4.00 for students, $5.00 non-students. Reception to follow in Forsythe Gallery at 9:00pm

Co-sponsored by Black Awareness Committee, Division of Student Affairs, Finance and Administration and Academic Affairs

> For more information please call 845-5826 reprimand to suspension, said. Thomas said they current she said.

MLK

investigating the case. "We haven't got all of he Batt pieces of the puzzle together

Mem gies hich } exas Al Nanc

James

Unive

oman

UPD

Wiat

The H

Jenni

nd a s udents exuals "I sti

e Batt

Men

"This is something that need to be done," Williams said. "Sou times the system can be slow matters like this."

Williams said the importa the holiday is reflected by things King represented. "The things he stood for are

Continued from Page 1

"The things he stor for are relevant no begins only nationally but campus as well. should be giving the See R kind of respect to leader who has be sources ignored so long."

- Tanya Willia president of the Blat had tre Awareness Commit evant not only nationally b campus as well," she said. should be giving this kind of spect to a leader who has been nored so long.'

Williams said the Black Awa ness Committee celebrates M Luther King Jr. during Black His<sup>6</sup> tial ove Month in February. The campus has typically<sup>6</sup> "I he served Martin Luther King Jr.<sup>10</sup> of the day by ringing the Albritton Bell in memory of the leader.

WAS

of the s