The Texas A&M chapter of Alpha Phi Omega will sponsor a fun run Saturday to benefit the Brazos Valley Special Olympics.

The Second Annual Special K fund-raiser will be a five-kilometer run or walk and is open to anyone who wants to participate. Danyelle Williams, a freshman geography major and member of Alpha Phi Omega, said there will be four age categories that will be separated into male and female groups.

There will be prizes for the winners of each appreciative of the contributions made by be category, and a prize for the overall winner.

"We are going to have gift certificates for Southwest Airlines and for free dinners at area restaurants," said Tricia Perry, a freshman elementary education major.

Participants will receive a free T-shirt as part of the fund-raiser, and they will contribute to the Special Olympics on April 8 and 9. Williams said APO was able to donate $800 last year for medals and trophies. Perry said this
