tuck their purse behind the seat," he said.
 "Well the burglars know that, and they just bust the window and pull back the seat. It's called a smash and grab."
 Cuthbertson also encouraged women to put their purse on the floor board while driving.
 "While they are sitting at a stop light, a thief can just walk up, shatter the window and grab the purse off the seat," he said.

 Kretzschmar said most of the crime on the A&M campus occurs in the parking garages, even though there is 24-hour security.
 "It is mainly just criminal mischief, such as vandalism and key scratching," Kretzmar said.
 Kretzschmar said UPD has had success identifying the suspects by reviewing the video tapes which monitor the parking garage.

Free Cheese

Go to a free screening of Mystery Science Theater 3000, the cable T.V. show that cuts cheesy movies to pieces. Stranded in space, a guy and two robots sit through really bad movies and make wisecracks. It's two solid hours of cheese. Without the nasty constipation.
