Rangers slip by Tribe; Astros fall to the Cardinals
The Associated Press

Rangers 5, Indians 4
CLEVELAND — Will Clark's sacrifice fly capped a two-run ninth inning Sunday as the Texas Rangers beat the Cleveland Indians 5-4 for their fifth win in the last six games. The Indians took a 4-3 lead into the ninth, but their bullpen blew the save for the eighth time in 16 chances this year. Derek Lilliquist gave up a leadoff double to Manuel Lee, who moved to third on a fly to right and scored on Oddibe McDowell's infield single off Jose Mesa (3-1). Jose Canseco singled McDowell to third — Canseco's third hit — and Clark followed with the winning fly ball off Brian Barnes. Lee also had three hits.

Cardinals 6, Astros 5
HOUSTON — Bob Tewksbury became the first six-game winner year, including a shot as the first batter of the season. Tewksbury (6-0) allowed five runs and nine hits in seven innings. He struck out five and walked none. He took a 5-2 lead into the sixth, but Luis Gonzalez tied it with a three-run homer.

Stars to face Canucks in second round
The Associated Press

DALLAS — The Dallas Stars have finally learned who their next opponents will be in the Stanley Cup playoffs. The Vancouver Canucks defeated the Calgary Flames, 4-3, in overtime Saturday in Game 7 of the playoff quarterfinals. From the Stars' point of view, the Canucks might have been worth waiting for. Dallas, host for Monday's semifinal opener, won all but one of its four regular-season games against the Canucks. Stars defenseman Craig Ludwig said he may feel an advantage over Vancouver when they face off at Reunion Arena on Monday, but not because of their regular-season history together.
