Nets survive game 3, 93-92; Phoenix sweeps Golden State

The Associated Press
 EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Chris Morris made two free throws with 1.5 seconds left in overtime Wednesday night, keeping New Jersey alive in the playoffs with a 93-92 victory over New York.
 The Knicks still lead 2-1, with Game 4 at the Meadowlands on Friday night. Morris' free throws came after the Knicks rallied from a 16-point deficit in the second half.
 John Starks' 3-pointer gave New York a 90-89 lead with 1:04 left in overtime, but reserve forward Armon Gilliam gave the lead back to the Nets with a dunk at the 43-second mark. Patrick Ewing's baseline jumper once again gave the Knicks a one-point lead, but Charles Oakley couldn't stop Morris' baseline drive, forcing him to foul.
 Derrick Coleman finished with 25 points and 17 rebounds for the Nets.
 Ewing led the Knicks with 27 points and 14 rebounds.
Suns 140, Warriors 133
 Charles Barkley scored a career-high 56 points in the most inspired performance of his career Wednesday night, leading the Phoenix Suns to a 140-133 victory over the Golden State Warriors and a sweep of their first-round playoff series.
