Rockets

Harper led New York with 21 points and John Starks had 20 and nine assists. Ewing finished with 18 points, on 9-for-29 shooting, 12 rebounds and seven blocks.

But the controversial offensive foul call against Ewing for bumping Vernon Maxwell as the Rocket tried to fight through a pick was costly. It occurred with Houston leading 89-88 with 23 seconds to play.

"I was a little bit surprised, but you have to live with those types of calls," Harper said.

"It was a tough, tough call to take. I don't know if it even had an impact on whether Vernon Maxwell got through the screen," Knicks coach Pat Riley said. "We were down one and it was a big possession for us."

"It was a judgment call," referee Jake O'Donnell said. "The play was a pick and roll. He moved his hip out and then he did it again. I'm not gonna let it be twice."

Starks, who had made three of four 3-pointers in New York's Game 2 victory, missed a 3 with 10 seconds left and was fouled attempting another with 3.9 seconds left. He made the first free throw and Otis Thorpe rebounded the intentional miss of the second. Cassell followed with his last two free throws.

"That's my job to make shots," Cassell said when asked if the 3-pointer or free throws were bigger shots.

"I wasn't surprised," he said of playing so many minutes in the final period. "I've been finishing a lot of playoff games in the fourth quarter. We all contributed a lot tonight."

Houston's win extends the trend of home teams having trouble in the middle three games of the finals. They have now lost 13 of those last 15 games. And the last three times a team split the first two games at home, as Houston did, it went on to win the title.

The Knicks, who lost their eighth consecutive Game 3, lost for the second time in 11 home playoff games. Houston is just 3-6 in its last nine games in New York, but is 2-0 this season. In the playoffs, the Rockets are 5-3 on the road.

The Knicks are trying to extend the East's championship streak to six seasons. The last Western Conference team to win it was the Los Angeles Lakers, under Riley, in 1988.

"It was a big character win for us. I felt Game 2 was a little bit demoralizing — and the Knicks can do that to you," Tomjanovich said. "We talked about that, looked at it on tape and did a better job of executing today. You can mirror this game with Game 2. Both teams played tough defense, and we wound up making the tough shots at the end — just like they did in Game 2."

Houston, running off missed shots and getting more open jumpers than in the first two games, outscored New York 11-2 at the start of the game, built its biggest lead at 42-36 and took a 45-38 lead at halftime.

Houston led 69-63 after three quarters before the pace slowed. The Rockets led 77-71 with 6:25 left in the fourth quarter, then began to unravel.

After Ewing's putback cut the lead to four, Horry airballed a 3-pointer as the 24-second clock was running out. Harper made the score 77-75 with a basket from the top of the key.

Then Maxwell missed a 3-pointer under pressure. The Knicks ran off the rebound and Starks raced ahead of the field for a layup with 5:16 left that gave New York its first tie since 2-2.

Ewing gave New York its first lead with a jumper that made it 82-81 with 2:52 to go.

Then, in a crowd sparking with celebrities — Spike Lee, Jack Nicholson, John F. Kennedy Jr., Daryl Hannah and John and Patrick McEnroe — a skinny rookie stole the show.

"I'm still young, I've been learning things all season and my teammates still have a lot of confidence in me," Cassell said. "That home court advantage is ours, baby."

Braves edge Astros, Royals strum Texas

Atlanta 3, Houston 1

HOUSTON (AP) — Greg Maddux became the first 10-game winner in the major leagues Sunday, working around 11 hits and leading the Atlanta Braves past the Houston Astros 3-1.

Maddux (10-2), trying to become the first pitcher to win three straight Cy Young Awards, lowered his ERA to 1.38, also the best mark in the majors.

Maddux walked none and struck out four in his fourth complete game. He was helped by three double plays.

Kansas City's David Cone had a chance to win his 10th game Sunday night in Texas.

Greg Swindell (5-3) gave up two runs and eight hits in eight innings. He struck out five and walked one.

The Braves scored in the ninth off John Hudek when Roberto Kelly singled and a double by Fred McGriff, who went 4-for-4.

Atlanta took a 2-0 lead in the second. McGriff opened with a double, David Justice walked and both runners moved up on a groundout. After Mark Lemke struck out, Bill Peota doubled off the left-field fence.

Houston scored in the second. Jeff Bagwell led off with an infield hit, Ken Caminiti singled and Kevin Bass followed with an RBI double.

Maddux escaped more trouble in the second when Camini-ti was thrown out at the plate by McGriff as he tried to score on a grounder. Maddux then got Andujar Cedeno to hit into an inning-ending double play.

Notes: Braves closer Greg McMichael has not allowed a home run in 32 appearances, spanning 36 2-3 innings. ... Terry Pendleton had started 187 consecutive games at third base before sitting out the past two games with a sore neck. ... Atlanta has outscored opponents 77-25 in the first two innings this season. ... Astros relievers have allowed just 13 earned runs in the past 73 2-3 innings since May 9.

Kansas City 7, Texas 2

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — David Cone became the American League's first 10-game winner Sunday night, leading the Kansas City Royals to a 7-2 victory over the Texas Rangers.

Cone (10-2), who has won nine of his last 10 decisions, joined Atlanta's Greg Maddux as baseball's only 10-game winners. Earlier Sunday, Maddux beat the Houston Astros 3-1 for his 10th win.

Cone gave up three hits in 7 2-3 innings, struck out three and walked two.

He carried a two-hit shutout into the eighth before the Rangers closed to 6-2 with a pair of unearned runs. Cone leads the AL, pitching with a 2.41 ERA.

David Hulse's groundout drove in Rusty Greer, and Will Clark brought in the Rangers' second run with an RBI single off Mike Magnante.

Rusty Meacham got out of a bases-loaded jam in the eighth by getting Juan Gonzalez to fly to left, and pitched the ninth for his third save.

Greg Gagne supplied the offense for Cone with an RBI double in the third and a two-run triple in the seventh. Felix Jose added a solo homer in the eighth.

The Royals provided Cone with a 2-0 cushion in the third off Rangers starter Hector Fajardo (2-2).

Fajardo issued a leadoff walk to Jose, Terry Shumpert followed with a single and the runners advanced on Jose Lind's sacrifice.

Vince Coleman's groundout scored Jose, and Shumpert came in on Gagne's double.

Kansas City opened a 5-0 lead with a three-run seventh.

Lind singled with one out. Coleman walked and both scored when Gagne tripled to left-center. Brian McRae's sacrifice fly drove in Gagne.

Fajardo allowed five runs and nine hits, striking out five with two walks.
