

Nebraska rolls over West Virginia in Kickoff Classic

Frazier runs for three TDs, passes for one in 31-0 win

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) — Nebraska, which ended last season with a heartbreaking loss in the Orange Bowl, started this season with an impressive victory in the Kickoff Classic.

Tommie Frazier ran for three touchdowns and passed for one and Lawrence Phillips rushed for 126 yards as the fourth-ranked Cornhuskers routed No. 24 West Virginia 31-0 Sunday in the opening game of college football's 125th season.

Both teams went 11-0 last year before losing their bowl games. Nebraska missed a last-second field goal and fell to Florida State 18-16 in a national title showdown in the Orange Bowl. West Virginia was clobbered by Florida 41-7 in the Sugar Bowl.

The way the Cornhuskers played Sunday, they appear capable of reaching another championship game this season.

West Virginia didn't cross midfield until it recovered a fumble early in the fourth quarter and was shut out for the first time since a 19-0 loss to Penn State in 1986.

Nebraska gained 285 yards and 17 first downs in the first half while holding West Virginia to four yards and two first downs.

For the game, the Cornhuskers outgained the Mountaineers 468-89, including 368-8 on the ground.

Frazier, a junior who has directed Nebraska's option attack since midway through his freshman season, helped the Cornhuskers take command in the second quarter after going ahead 3-0 on Tom SIELER's 32-yard field goal in the opening period.

Frazier scored on runs of 25 and 27 yards and threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to Reggie Baul to give Nebraska a 24-0 halftime lead. He added a 42-yard TD run in the fourth quarter.

Frazier, the game's most valuable player, ran 12 times for 130 yards and was 8-of-16 for 100 yards. Phillips, a sophomore making his first college start, carried 24 times and more than filled the gap left by the departure of star tailback Calvin Jones.

West Virginia, which averaged 34 points last season, could do nothing against Nebraska's quick, aggressive defense. Sophomores Chad Johnston and Eric Boykin alternated at quarterback for the Mountaineers, but neither could move the team against a Nebraska defense that had eight sacks.

Baseball strike talks have not resumed

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball players and owners spent the weekend waiting for each other to call.

"There's nothing going on," executive council chairman Bud Selig said Sunday by telephone from Milwaukee.

Negotiations broke off Thursday and no further talks are scheduled to end the walkout that began Aug. 12. The strike canceled 14 more games Sunday, raising the total to 223.

"I've had no contact with anyone," union head Donald Fehr said.

Both sides say they expect to hear Monday from federal mediators, who entered the dispute the day after it began. The mediators probably will call another bargaining session for the middle of the week.

Management negotiator Richard Ravitch said last Thursday he expects the delegations from each side will be smaller at future sessions. There were 55 people in the room during Wednesday's meeting — the first since the strike began.

"That was a guess on my part," he said. "I haven't changed my guess."

No progress is forseen in the talks until at least after the owners' quarterly meetings, scheduled for Detroit from Sept. 7-9. While there have been rumors that the meetings will be called off, Selig said that's not true.

"At this point in time, I would think they would take place," he said Sunday. "Everything is subject to review."

Four years ago, the quarterly session in Dallas during the owners' 32-lockout was canceled to allow negotiations to continue. In 1981, a meeting in Kansas City, Mo., was called off — some say to prevent some owners from expressing dissent.

Selig said he wouldn't want the meetings to interfere with bargaining.

STRIKE SCOREBOARD

No talks are scheduled between players and owners, but both sides anticipate a meeting later this week. Through Sunday, nearly 10 percent of the season has been canceled because of the strike.
