• September 13, Tuesday • September 13, 1994

By BRA

You didn't think we meant hunting did

uatro

OURSE, WE ARE

CRAP LIKE

TINELY SU

ON'T THINKS THAT (IBLE, BUD.

Thursday cloudy with iso kickoff that Richardson was named the starting quarterback in place of the injured Cody Carlson. Once the former Texas Aggie trotted onto the field, he didn't disappoint his die-hard throng of fans.

through tackles. He scrambled and threw strikes. He took over and valiantly led his team. He did everything in his power to pro-duce a Houston Oiler upset.

But the feisty Bucky Richard-son couldn't do it all alone as his team fell to the heavily-favored

It might have been a more successful debut had his teammates not experienced several of their characteristic mental letdowns.

But the Oilers are notorious for their bone-headed blunders, so that's beside the point. Let's talk

It wasn't until two hours before

Dallas Cowboys, 20-17.

about Bucky.

With the exception of an ill-advised interception, Bucky played a pretty solid game. He kept the two-time defending world champions on their toes the entire afternoon, eluding a fierce pass rush by scrambling and unloading

The third year quarterback was cool and confident in the huddle, and effectively moved the football. When all was said and done, Bucky had 242 yards passing and he ran for 37 more.

Although the Cowboys were the better team on this day, Richardson showed he has great potential as a starting quarterback in the NFL. At this stage, he lacks the Please see Day, Page 6

Young team meets topranked schools in tourney

By Stewart Doreen HE BATTALION

After a hard fought weekend against the nation's best, The Texas A&M women's soccer team comes home for the season's home opener today against Mercer University at 5 p.m. at the Aggie Soccer Complex.

The Aggies return from Dallas where they participated in the Southern Methodist University Classic with three teams ranked in soccer's top 20. A&M, 2-1-1, tied the 17th-ranked Maryland Terrapins 1-1 in a hard-fought match. The Aggies ing attack of the Terrapins that had scored 5 goals in their Friday win against 11th ranked SMU. In the end, missed

"We left the game with a little bit of a bitter taste," A&M head coach G. Guerrieri said. "We thought we created many more good chances than they did."

The tie came two days after the Aggies were baptized into the religion of big-time collegiate soccer in Friday's match against the legendary North Carolina Tar Heels, a team that marched into Dallas on a 83-game winning streak. The 4-0 win by the No. 1-ranked Tar Heels did leave the Aggies with many positives on Friday. Tar Heel head coach Anson Dorrance, whose team has won eight straight national titles, threw some praise towards A&M's second-vear ball club.

"His (Guerrieri's) players played hard and didn't roll over against us," Dorrance said. "I they did."

"We left the [Maryland] game with a little bit of a bitter taste. We thought we created many more good chances than they did."

- G. Guerrieri, A&M head ranted praise from their head coach "My kids impressed me," perrieri said. "They soccer coach Guerrieri said.

showed the ability to step up

Please see Soccer, Page 7

respect a young program that plays hard against a veteran program like ours and has stretches of domination like record, their performances against top competition war-

Despite the Aggies' 0-1-1

WTAW radio adds sports show to line-up By David Winder

THE BATTALION

Feel like Leeland McElroy is not get-ting the ball enough? Think the baseball strike will never end? Having trouble finding people you can express your true sports feelings to?

If so, then Chip Howard's new Sports Talk from 5 - 7 p.m. on WTAW radio has you in mind.

"People have always said to me for years 'Why doesn't Bryan-College Station have a sports talk show?"" Howard said. 'I've always wanted to do one, but I couldn't because of the early hours I was working at KORA.'

Since the show started last week, Bucky Richardson, Dallas Morning News writer Randy Galloway, Dallas radio broadcast-er Brad Sham and Oklahoma Sooner head coach Gary Gibbs have all appeared as guests.

A&M volleyball head coach Laurie Corbelli, soccer head coach G. Guerrieri and football head coach R.C. Slocum have also made appearances on the show.

"I hope what I am doing is giving a forum to some of the lesser sports that haven't had that forum before," Howard said. "I never had the soccer coach on when I had three minutes for the sportscast on KORA.

Howard hopes to get more people listening to the show by including segments on golf and hunting every week.

Aggie Fact

September 13, 1980: A freshman running back named Herschel Walker runs 80 yards for a touchdown and leads eventual national champion Georgia to a 42-0 throttling of the Aggies at Sanford Stadium in Athens.

used a tough defense that shut down the high-scor-opportunities and suspect officiating took a victory from the the development of the program. young Aggies.

U.S. Open win boosts Agassi to No. 9 NEW YORK (AP) - He was on his knees, his eyes aglow, mumbling a word or two to himself on the stadium court. "I can't believe it," Andre Agassi said. "The whole thing. Maybe this was the real Agassi on Sunday, a champion at the U.S. Open, producing a 6-1, 7-6 (7-5), 7-5 victory over Michael Stich that had everything to do with substance and precious little with marketing campaigns.

Agassi went into this tournament unseeded and beat five seeded players on his way to the title. Work like that is not done with smoke and mirrors. Stich does not know Agassi well, but he has seen the glitz and the neon that accompany him wherever he goes. He has seen Barbra Streisand on his arm at one Open, Brooke Shields at another.

He has heard the screeches for Agassi at the National Tennis Center and he has heard the courtside proclamation by U.S. Tennis Association president "Bumpy" Frazer hailing Agassi as the most famous tennis player in the world.

Stich does not take kindly to foolishness. And this was not a good afternoon for him, his groundstrokes caught in the wind, his skills diminished by Agassi, his patience tested by the umpire. But even Stich was struck by the poignance of Agassi alone on the stadium court while the cheers washed over him like the surf.

'If you were standing out there next to him, he was just like a little kid," Stich said. "He didn't know what to say. He was just so happy and I think he is a nice guy.

"He wasn't able to cope with all the things people brought up to him. And everybody was just trying to make his mage — companies, television people, ATP, players. And I think the image he has is not the person he is. To get rid of that is very difficult for a young man, and he seems able to do that now a little better.

Some players simply have to deliver the right shots to win a tournament. For Agassi it is never that simple. This Open became a kind of psychodrama for him, an examination of his strength and will and maturity.

"I think more than anything this is a reflection of my commitment," he said. "If I had gone down to one of these other guys during the week, I would still have been sitting here say-ing the same thing. I've got to keep on my dreams, and my dreams are to win a tournament like this. That is where it is at - winning the Grand Slams."

His ATP ranking Monday moved from No. 20 to No. 9. He said it was not unreasonable to think he could become No. 1. If he did it for two weeks, why not longer?

More immediately, he leaves the Open and begins an exhibition tour, starting Tuesday night at Albany, N.Y., against John McEnroe. Agassi said American tennis needs a lift and the tour is important.

Un campus uns year.

said his agency ctim of "misinfo ople who have sta is currently a in to designate p counties as way e said his agen ying the idea y not" come up bitat proposal. aid "incorrect i s given to the p dopted by politic bolster their CB nciting the issue rights. er to Secretary of ruce Babbitt da ichards said im of the Endange ct "has become ng that it un ic support for swildlife." said a critical h ion would be an to the 33 Cen ties, which are e songbird's ne United States th, more than 3 converged of a rally against ion that would private proper

A distinctively fragrant assortment of wool, denim, rayon and poly-cotton blends

Now you can really clean up when you buy a select Macintosh® Performa®. For a limited time, it comes bundled with a unique new student software set available only from Apple. It's all the software you're likely to need in college. You'll get software that takes you through every aspect of writing papers, the only personal organizer/calendar created for your student lifestyle and the Internet Companion to help you tap into on-line research resources. Plus ClarisWorks, an intuitive, integrated package with a spreadsheet, word processor, database and more. Buy a select Performa with CD-ROM, and you'll also get a multimedia library of essential reference tools. And now, with an Apple Computer Loan, you can own a Macintosh for less than a dollar a day.+ It's the power every student needs. The power to be your best.+ Apple through it. MICROCOMPUTERCEN Computer Sales and Service

Located in the Texas A&M Bookstore next to the software department 409-845-4081

Micro Computer Fair Rudder Exhibit Hall September 22 and 23 Mountain bike to be given away!

expires October 17, 1994, available only while supplies last. © 1994 Apple Computer, Inc. All rights reserved. Apple, the Apple logo, Macintosh, Performa and "The power to be your best" are registered trademarks of Apple Computer, Inc. Apple Design is a trademark of Apple Computer, Inc. All rights reserved. Apple, the Apple logo, Macintosh, Performa and "The power to be your best" are registered trademarks of Apple Computer, Inc. Apple Design is a trademark of Apple Computer, Inc. All rights reserved. Apple, the Apple logo, Macintosh, Performa and "The power to be your best" are registered trademarks of Apple Computer, Inc. Apple Design is a trademark of Apple Computer, Inc. ClarisWorks is a registered trademark to the source best of the Computer Jonne 356, and $1,832.59] for the Performa 636 with CD-ROM system shown above. Prices and Loan amounts are subject to change without notice. See your Apple Computer, Inc. All rights reserved. Apple, the Apple Logo, Macintosh, Performa and "The power to be your best" are registered trademarks of Apple Computer, Inc. All rights reserved. Apple, the Apple Computer, Inc. Apple Computer, Inc. All rights reserved. Apple, the Apple Computer, Inc. Apple Computer, Inc. Apple Computer, Inc. All rights reserved. Apple Computer, Inc. All rights reserved. Apple Computer, Inc. Apple Computer, Inc. Apple Com