Aikman maintains cool Dallas quarterback's leadership impressive

IRVING, Texas (AP) — There's one Dallas Cowboy who keeps his cool when others are losing first their helmets and then their tempers.

Barry Switzer calls this captain of composure "stone face."
"Troy kept his poise," said Switzer, the Cowboys rookie coach. "He's the one who had to fight off all the negatives."

Aikman led by example. He started hanging in the pocket a little longer, buying a little time on the blitz until his receivers could get clear. He paid a price in knockdowns by the aggressive Eagles defenders.

"I struggled in the first quarter," Aikman said. "The Eagles did a nice job of putting pressure on me. Every ball I put in there was tight."

"The important thing is to not lose my head and for the other guys not to lose theirs," Aikman said. "I gave the guys a talk in the first quarter. Then they understood that we would do fine."

After a 2-for-9 start, Aikman logged a total working man's day of 12 for 23 passes and 156 yards, including touchdown strikes of 16 yards to Alvin

Harper and 14 yards to Jay Novacek.

The Cowboys overcame a 7-0 deficit to beat the Eagles 24-13 and claim leadership in the NFC East with a 5-1 ledger. Dallas has won 10 consecutive games against NFC East foes dating back to September 1993, when it lost the opener to Washington.

Switzer is learning to appreciate Aikman a lot more than he did at Oklahoma where he tried to make a Wishbone quarterback out of him. Aikman went to UCLA because of it.

"If Troy goes nuts on you when things go bad then it's all over," Switzer said. "That's why I call him 'stone face.' He never changes expression and he never has any panic. He just hangs in there and gets the job done."

The Eagles sacked Aikman twice and knocked him down a dozen times.

"They were playing an aggressive style defense and the coverage was tight so we hit the slants," Aikman said. "We eventually made them pay."

"We're playing as well right now as we did at this time last year," said Aikman.

BRIEFS

Women's golf team takes second

The Texas A&M women's golf team ended Monday's action in second place of the 11-team field at the Marilyn Smith/Sunflower Invitational in Hutchinson, Kansas. The Lady Aggies completed 35 holes on Monday, finishing the day with a two-round total of 654.

"This is a great golf course," Lady Aggie head coach Jeanne Sutherland said. "If the conditions were a little better, I believe you would have seen some lower scores."

The tournament, being held at the par-72 Prairie Dunes Country Club, will conclude later this week.

Hockey strike continues

(AP) — Seventeen days and 93 games — and still counting.

The numbers continued to mount Monday in the postponed NHL season with seemingly no quick solution in sight to the labor dispute between the league and its players.

The league has been in a holding pattern since Oct. 1, the original starting date of the season. That was first postponed by NHL commissioner Gary Bettman in hopes of reaching a new collective bargaining agreement with the players by Oct. 15.

The deadline passed, following a rejection of the latest players' proposal by the owners last Tuesday.

Bettman and Goodenow haven't spoken since. NHL spokesman Arthur Pincus said Monday there were no negotiations planned at this point.

There still was no word whether the 93 postponed games would be rescheduled and that the entire 84-game schedule can be salvaged. The league hasn't officially canceled any games, but has announced that a formal policy regarding ticket refunds would be issued Nov. 1 if no contract was reached by then.

Alou selected as NL manager of the year

NEW YORK (AP) — Felipe Alou, who guided the young Montreal Expos to the best record in the majors before the strike stopped the season, was a near-unanimous choice Monday as National League manager of the year.

Alou got 27 of 28 first-place votes, with Dallas Green of the New York Mets receiving the other one.

The Expos, who have shown steady improvement in Alou's two-plus seasons, exceeded even their own high expectations this year by going 74-40.

Texas Tech athletic director dies

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — Texas Tech associate athletics director Jeannine McHaney, who helped build Red Raider women's sports from an intramural offshoot, died of cancer complications Sunday. She was 50.

McHaney was admitted to University Medical Center last week after she was having trouble breathing.

She held a variety of jobs at Tech over the past 28 years and guided women's athletics into an eight-sport program with a budget of $1.2 million last year. The Women's Basketball Coaches Association named her the 1993 Administrator of the Year.

Cubs manager Trebelhorn fired

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs got rid of their 11th manager in 12 years Monday, firing Tom Trebelhorn after a last-place finish in the NL Central.

Trebelhorn, hired last October, was the fifth manager fired since the players' strike ended the season Aug. 12.

"All I can say is I'm hoping to have a manager and coaching staff in place for the team's organization meetings the first 10 days of November," general manager Ed Lynch said by telephone.

"I will interview Tony Muser, but I have not made up my mind and will probably interview at least one or two others."

There had been speculation Lynch, hired last week, would promote Muser, the Cubs' third base coach, to manager. While an executive with the San Diego Padres, Lynch in 1992 interviewed Muser for a Triple-A managerial job.

Chicago finished with a 49-64 record this season, second worst in the league.

Trebelhorn's firing completed a shakeup in the Cubs' front office. Andy MacPhail was hired last month as the team's president from the Minnesota Twins and Lynch was hired from the New York Mets.

Rice

A portion of the sweetness for the Owls was beating their annual tormentors in a nationally televised game.

"Not only did we beat Texas, we beat them in front of everybody," LaRocca said. "We ran it down their throats with our style of offense. We shut them down with our defense. It was awesome."

"It feels even better than I always thought it would."

The Owls were running out of time to beat the Texas Longhorns before the two teams left the Southwest Conference.

"We just had to get them before they got out of the conference," wide receiver Ed Howard said. "There was no way they were leaving the conference without us beating them. Hell no."

Rice's path to the Cotton Bowl is still steep. The Owls play at Texas Christian (2-3, 0-2) on Oct. 29 and host Southern Methodist (1-6, 0-3) on Nov. 5.

Then comes the biggest remaining showdown against Baylor (5-2, 2-1) on Nov. 12 in Rice Stadium. Navy and Houston (1-5, 1-1) also remain on the schedule.

Rice athletic director Bobby May, a Rice senior in 1965 when the Owls last beat Texas, still managed to think like an administrator following the wild celebration that followed the game.

"I'm not sure what to do next, except fix the goal posts," he said.

Israel-Jordan

King Hussein of Jordan, who maintained clandestine contacts with Israeli leaders for years despite the state of war between the two countries, insisted the treaty heralded a new era.

"Hopefully, it is a fresh beginning and a fresh start," he said.

And Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin of Israel called it a "historically unique moment," and said he hoped a full-fledged treaty would be signed by the end of next week.

Israel TV said the full accord would be signed Oct. 27 on the Jordan-Israel border and that President Clinton had been invited to take part. Clinton administration officials said Clinton would probably attend.

Israel and Jordan signed a non-belligerence pact in Washington on July 25, and since then had been working to resolve differences that stood in the way of a full-fledged peace treaty.

"I believe this peace is an important achievement," a weary Rabin told reporters in Jerusalem after returning from Monday's ceremony and the overnight meetings in Jordan. "I think it will also have repercussions where Syria and the Palestinians are concerned."

Peace talks with Syria have lagged over Damascus' demand that Israel relinquish the Golan Heights captured in the 1967 Middle East war. Polls show most Israelis oppose giving up the Golan.

Monday's accord, signed by Rabin and Prime Minister Abdul Salam Majali of Jordan, came after a rocky week for peace talks with the Palestinians.

Israel suspended negotiations with the PLO after Islamic militants kidnapped an Israeli soldier. The soldier was killed by his captors Friday as Israeli commandos stormed their hideout, but talks are to resume Tuesday in Cairo.

Clinton said he was "delighted" by the developments in Amman, adding: "This agreement reminds us that moderation and reason are prevailing."

Jordan is only the second Arab country to make peace with Israel. Egypt broke ranks to do so in 1979.

Jordan and Israel last fought in the 1967 Middle East war, when Israel seized the West Bank and east Jerusalem, but a state of war has existed between the countries since 1948.

Syria fought Israel in 1948, as well as in 1967, 1973 and during Israel's 1982 invasion of Lebanon.

Many Jordanians were taken by surprise when they heard of the accord through the Israeli media, which reported the event live.

Jordan's media did not report it for four hours, apparently because of concern it would trigger protests by hard-line opponents of peace with Israel.
