Packers weather storm, defeat Chicago 33-6

CHICAGO (AP) — Unable to beat the wind and rain with Brett Favre's arm most of the night, the Green Bay Packers slogged over the soggy Soldier Field turf to earn a victory they had to have.

Edgar Bennett scored three touchdowns and Favre had a 36-yard scoring run as the Packers defeated the Chicago Bears 33-6 Monday night.

Bryce Paup intercepted two passes for the Packers (4-4), who stayed in the hunt for a playoff spot. The Bears and Detroit Lions also are 4-4, meaning the Minnesota Vikings have a two-game lead in the NFC Central.

Favre was 0-for-7 before completing a pass to Sterling Sharpe midway through the third quarter.

Finally, after the Packers' running loosened up the Bears' defense, Favre completed four passes on the drive that gave Green Bay a 27-0 lead. He capped the 65-yard march with a 13-yard pass to Bennett, who rushed for 105 yards and two other scores.

Favre finished 6-of-15 for 82 yards. But his biggest accomplishment on a 43-degree night that included 36 mph gusts and a steady rain was simply taking care of the football.

Favre, who threw an NFL-high 24 interceptions last season and was picked off seven times in this year's first seven games, carefully engineered Green Bay's no-turnover attack Monday.

Chicago, meanwhile, had five give-aways.

Erik Kramer fell to 1-4 as the Bears' starting quarterback. He fumbled once and was picked off twice by Paup before Steve Walsh replaced him to start the second half.

The loss is sure to throw gasoline on the Bears' smoldering quarterback controversy — Walsh won three consecutive starts while Kramer was out with a separated shoulder.

The Bears avoided their first shutout since 1989 when Walsh and Jeff Graham connected on a 5-yard touchdown pass with 5:55 to play.

Reggie Cobb added a 9-yard scoring run for the Packers with 1:53 left.

Chicago won the coin toss and took the wind instead of the ball. But the Bears never got closer than Green Bay's 26-yard line in the opening quarter.

Kramer and Lewis Tillman fumbled a handoff exchange on the Bears' first series of the second quarter, giving Green Bay the ball at Chicago's 11. Two plays later, Bennett scored on a 3-yard run.

Chicago's Chris Gardocki, who had 56- and 57-yard punts with the wind in the opening quarter, managed only a 19-yarder against the gale in the second. And the Packers immediately took advantage, going 58 yards in four plays.

This day in Aggie football

November 1, 1986: No. 10-ranked Texas A&M overcomes SMU leads four times in a 39-35 win over the Mustangs, scoring the winner on a pass from Kevin Murray to Keith Woodside with 1:49 remaining.

Rockets waive Texas 'great'

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Rockets waived forward Albert Burditt, their only pick of this season's draft, and guard Larry Robinson on Monday, reducing the club's roster to 14 players.

Burditt, a second-round choice from Texas, had six points and 10 rebounds in three preseason games.

Rockets spokeswoman Rose Pietrzak said Burditt is now free to pursue a contract with a professional team in Greece.

Robinson, a second-year player signed as a free agent last April, averaged 10 minutes in four preseason games.

He was 6-of-11 from the field, averaging 4.3 points per game.

Robinson must clear waivers before pursuing a contract with another club.

Sinking Oilers search for lifeboat

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Oilers have been embarrassed so often this season, they're beginning to rate their defeats.

And they'll tell you losing in the last second hurts the worst.

They've taken pratfalls on prime-time television and are on their second losing streak of the season, the first being interrupted with a one-game win.

Yet, the ultimate came Sunday when Al Del Greco's 52-yard field goal attempt bounced off the crossbars as time expired, giving the Los Angeles Raiders a 17-14 victory.

"It's the worst way in the world to lose a game like that," defensive tackle Ray Childress said. "Basically, all we can do is try to go out and get ready for Pittsburgh."

"When you lose, bad things happen and when you win, good things happen."

Indianapolis blasted the Oilers 45-21 in the season opener that started the Oilers on their downward spin, following back-to-back AFC Central Division championships.

They've had offensive line problems, injuries troubles, inconsistency at quarterback and obvious bad luck.

"Everything seems to be going wrong, and it's really frustrating," linebacker Eddie Robinson said. "It's different when we play terrible and lose but we played well enough to win. What do we have to do to get over the hump?"

The Oilers fought within three points of the defending Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys but lost 20-17. They were in position to upset Philadelphia before losing 21-6 two weeks ago.

With Billy Joe Tolliver making his first start at quarterback, the Oilers made one last drive for victory in the closing seconds but it ended with Del Greco's missed field goal against the Raiders.

The Oilers have reached the point of wondering how the next disaster will occur.

"I don't know why we keep going through these trials and tribulations but for some reason things just aren't going our way," coach Jack Pardee said. "That kick just about sums up the way things have gone for us."

Pardee, in the final year of his contract, isn't thinking of anything but a victory.

"I've got enough professional pride that I don't have to worry about a threat or anything else. I want to do well every week. That's all the motivation I need."

"I'm embarrassed with a 1-7 record. I want to get over it and get out of it and we've got a ways to go to get it done."

and embarrassed opposing defenses in racking up ungodly numbers.

Their coach, offensive maverick John Jenkins, earned the disrespect and disgust of teams around the country by constantly gunning for the end zone week after week when his team was already up by 50 points with less than a minute to go.

That is the definition of rest of the year.

Switzer said it was the first game he had coached where the defense gave up big plays.

"We got hit on big plays we hadn't allowed all season," Switzer said. "But we did what we had to do. We got the win. And it could be an important one later in the season when you get into the playoffs and start talking homefield advantage."

Secondary coach Dave Campo said "Cincinnati did a good job of changing up some of the things they had done. But we adjusted to the new quarterback in the second half. You can count on two hands the number of big plays we've allowed in the last five years. That's what is so upsetting."

The Bengals jumped to a 14-0 lead almost before the Cowboys knew what happened.

"That's the way it's going to be the rest of the season because teams are out to get us," Newton said.

The Cowboys lead the Philadelphia Eagles by a game in the NFC East. They host the New York Giants, riding a five-game losing streak, next Monday night.

Then Dallas has a showdown in San Francisco in a game that could be decisive regarding the homefield advantage in the NFC playoffs.

"These are the kind of games you have to win on the way to a championship," Switzer.
