Aggie Hoops Fest-'94 to give fans preview Staff and Wire

Texas A&M basketball fans will get a taste of new talent and old favorites tonight at the Aggie Hoops Fest-'94 at G. Rollie White Coliseum, beginning at 7 p.m. Head coach Tony Barone will introduce the new members of the team and hold a short scrimmage between the maroon and the white teams. The festivities will also include a slam dunk contest, a threepoint shootout and an autograph and photo session with all the Aggie players and coaches.

Also on tap for the evening is an alumni game with players from last season to as far back as 1971. Former NBA players Steve Niles, Jeff Overhouse and Jimmie Gilbert will compete as will Chuck Henderson, Tony Barone, Jr., Michael Smith and Brett Murray from last year's 19-11 squad.

Other activities will include face painting and balloons for the kids, a variety of fan participation contests and a performance by the Texas A&M Dance Team.

Admission to the event is free, with doors opening at 6:30 p.m. Free popcorn and soft drinks will be available to all fans in attendance.

Norton is among seven new starters on a San Francisco defense that has recovered from a rocky start with solid, at times spectacular play, in the last month.

In Sunday's 37-22 win at Washington, safety Tim McDonald broke the game open with a 73-yard interception return for a touchdown. It was San Francisco's fourth defensive score of the season. McDonald also has a 49yard fumble return and cornerback Deion Sanders, the centerpiece of San Francisco's agent acquisitions, has two i terception returns for scores.
