Black hits right 'Emotion' on latest release

Haley Stavinoha
THE BATTALION

Clint Black
"One Emotion"
RCA Records
★★★★ (out of five)

More than "One Emotion" will surely be felt after listening to Clint Black's newest album. His fifth release definitely stands out from the rest of his collection with such a variety of songs.

If it had to be described in one word, it would have to be fresh. The album is not one of the traditional country albums which speaks of the trucks breaking down, momma in jail, losing the job and the dog on the same day.

What it does send out is deep messages of feelings from the heart, mind and soul.

Positive thoughts from Black can be picked out through a mixture of his upbeat songs and slower-paced ballads.

Black expands on his talents by not only singing, but by writing two of the songs and co-writing the others on "One Emotion." The title track kicks the album off as a passionate ballad that many will be able to relate to through personal experiences. Black speaks of love and relationships, that are "just as real as the wild horses."

"Untanglin' My Mind," co-written with Merle Haggard, speaks of a relationship ending with feelings which are determined within the mind "of a crazy man." "A Change in the Air" really lets you dream while "talkin' in the wind" with a look forward into the fall.

The song encourages listeners to "stop and smell the roses" in the chorus when Black sings that "it's a comfort leaving me without a care."

"Life Gets Away" focuses on how life can truly slip away from underneath our eyes.

"The world keeps on turning I'm learning to see" is the first line of the chorus which says each day is important because we learn something new all the time. And with a different meaning,

"I Can Get By" speaks of life and the world around. Black suggests that we should age to get through even though there are times when it does not seem possible. "Hey Hot Rod" is one of those songs just for fun that "burnin' up town" because Texas Civil is fast beat, great for dancing. The variety of country music on "One Emotion" adds yet another hit to Black's already impressive career.

NEW YORK (AP) — What qualifications does Charles Grodin bring as host of a talk show? He says, but why he should be different from others?

"I have no qualifications at all, and we're very excited about that," said Grodin, who announced today he is replacing Tom Snyder as host of the CNBC talk show seen weeknights at 10 p.m. EST. Snyder is moving to CBS as host of a 12:30 a.m. show following "Late Show With David Letterman." Grodin, who frequently displays his deadpan wit as a guest on other talk shows, is a perfect placement, said CNBC President Roger Ailes. Grodin "understands the talk-show genre and uniquely enjoys talking to people," Ailes said.

Grodin signed a two-year deal. The star of "Beethoven" and other movies said he won't miss time away from films.

"I think this is the best job in television," said Grodin, who will do the show live from the station's Fort Lee, N.J., headquarters. "You come to work for two hours a day, you sit down, you go to America. It's certainly better than working 14 hours a day in the movies."

NEW YORK (AP) — Ignore those rumors that Lyle Lovett and Julia Roberts are headed for Splitsville. That was them holding hands as they walked to a restaurant after Lovett's New York City concert the other night.

Lovett didn't tell the audience Roberts was at Sunday's show. But in introducing the song "That's No Lady, That's My Wife," the country star was careful to note he wrote it before his marriage 17 months ago.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Roseanne has two dates to look forward to: one in December, when she divorces Tom Arnold, and another in February, when she marries her bodyguard, Ben Thomas.

The "Roseanne" star plans a Valentine's Day wedding, her publicist, Kevin Campbell, said Tuesday. The location hasn't been decided on.

Roseanne said last week she expects her divorce to become final in December, with the couple dividing property from their four-year marriage afterward, either by settlement or trial.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Twelve years after he fought Argentina in the Falkland War, Britain's Prince Andrew arrived Tuesday on a fence-mending mission.

The prince, a helicopter pilot in the 10-week war that Britain won, was met by an honor guard Foreign Minister Guido di Tella and other officials. He was to meet President Carlos Menem later.

"This will strengthen ties with Britain," Menem said. "If there is no dialogue between the sides, then we have no chance of recovering the islands."

Argentina still claims sovereignty over the South Atlantic island chain Britain has controlled since 1833 and hopes to recover them through diplomatic channels.
