winning streak to eight games

"Houston has got the same ingredients we had, and that is strong defense. And then they are also able to hit the outside shots," Bulls coach Phil Jackson said.

"They are so strong inside that when you double down, you're going to cause others to be open. Tonight those other players hit their shots and that was the difference," he said.

Smith complemented Olajumon hitties a of 6.2 raiset has won, hitting 4 of 6 3-point bas-kets and finished with 19 points. The Rockets sank 10 of 21 3-point baskets as a team.

"They are playing well with a lot of energy," Scottie Pippen said. "Olajuwon is having anfensively we're playing very well. We're still kind of catch-29 points and got 14 rebounds and Kenny Smith's hot 3-point ing up with the offense." shooting led the unbeaten The Rockets, who own a 20-4 record over Chicago in the Thursday night over the Bulls. That extended Houston's Summit, won on a night when plays that matters, and de-they committed 27 turnovers. "Twenty-seven turnovers for the world champs," Jackson said. "It was just one of those games. It was just terrible. We had a lot of open shots and just couldn't hit them, and we paid for it in the end."

Olajuwon dominated the inside from start to finish, and Smith hit two of his 3-pointers in an early fourthquarter run when the Rockets took command. "The first couple of games I wasn't in the flow. I had the flu," Smith said. "Now I'm getting my shot down and I'm get ting some good looks and working my way back."

Leading 72-67 at the start of the fourth period, the Rockets blew to a 91-75 edge with 6:57 to play. "In the fourth quarter, we made the extra pass and played competitive basketball on the offensive end the way we were playing on the defer-sive end," Smith said. The Bulls, who haven't won in the Summit since a 98-86 victory on Nov. 28, 1987, were led by Pippen's 15 points.

Dallas' Tarpley makes successful comeback

Tarpley could still play"

Mavericks coach Dick Motta ing glimmers of the form he knows what a healthy and fo-demonstrated when he last cused Roy Tarpley can mean to a team because he coached him a rookie before drug suspensions and knee injuries threatened to end his career. Tarpley and Motta have been reunited, and Tarpley paid the first of what the Mavericks hope is a series of dividends Thursday night when he

"I know people were over the Sacramento Kings. wondering if Roy "He has a way to go as far as his conditioning is concerned, but overall looked pretty led Dallas to a

96-94 decision

good," said Motta who, like Tarpley, is re-turning to the Mavericks following a lengthy absence. "He's in a heck of a lot better shape than he was a week ago.

Tarpley scored 16 points, including four consecutive points during a decisive fourth-quarter run, and pulled down nine rebounds to spark the Mavericks to their fourth victory in six games.

"I know people were wondering if Roy Tarpley could still play," said Tarpley, who was dismissed by the league under terms of its anti-drug agreement on Oct. 16, 1991 and hadn't played in an NBA game since Nov. 9, 1990. "I think I showed tonight that I can still play this game. This was better than I dreamed it could be," Tarpley said.

Motta played Tarpley for 25 minutes, longer than was expected for the seven-footer who was on his way to becoming one of the league's premier players before collecting his third strike under the league's anti-drug policy.

Tarpley's conditioning was set back over the summer when he suffered from stomach problems. Only in the last few days me. Yes, I think I'm back.'

DALLAS (AP) - Dallas at practice had he started show-

"I wasn't nervous, but I did get tired," said Tarpley, who was six-for-10 from the field and hit all four free throws. "I got a little winded, but that's to be expected in your first game back. In the second half I got my second wind. I've got to get in bet-and get stronger." Tarpley paced the fourthquarter ral-ly after Dallas had fall-Roy Tarpley, en behind, 90-81 with Dallas Mavericks center 6:35 to play and by as many as 12 early in the fourth quarter. Tarpley came off the bench with 6:18 remaining and scored four consecutive points during a run of seven unanswered points to pull Dallas to within 90-88 with 4:28 left. Jamal Mashburn, who led went to work, scoring consecutive baskets to give Dallas a 94-92 edge with 2:30 left. Mitch Richmond paced the Kings with 21 points and Walt Williams added 16. Williams missed a three-pointer with Dallas with 23 points, then three seconds to play to end the Kings' hopes. Tarpley entered the game to an ovation from the Reunion Are-na crowd with 4:32 left in the first quarter and got off to a fast start, converting a floating one hander in the lane nine seconds later to push Dallas' lead 21-17.

"The crowd really pumped me up by accepting me back," said Tarpley, who has had a love-hate relationship with the Dallas fans. "I appreciated the warmth that they showed. I was cool, calm and collected out there. This was a real test for
