Lady Aggies fall to UH

Staff and Wire Reports
The Texas A&M women's volleyball team fell to the nationally-ranked Lady Cougars of the University of Houston Sunday afternoon in the final of the Southwest Conference Championship tournament at Autry Court in Houston, 15-10, 15-9, 15-8.
"I don't think that we were really flat. They were just ready for us," Bronner
A&M head coach Laurie Corbelli said. "We worked our tails off to get to this point. We tried to establish our middles and free up our outside hitters, but Houston shut us down."
Despite the loss, the Lady Aggies placed three members on the all-tournament team with senior outside hitter Jennifer Bronner, freshman outside hitter Kristie Smedsrud and junior setter Suzy Wente. Lady Cougar outside hitter Lilly De-noon-Chester was named Tournament Most Valuable Player, contributing 16 kills and 17 digs in the final match against A&M.
The Lady Aggies defeated Rice and Texas on their way to Sunday's finale. Friday night, A&M eliminated the host Lady Owls in three straight games, 15-10, 15-13, 15-0. Bronner led the way with 19 kills, Smedsrud enjoyed a match-high .471 hitting percentage and Wente contributed an outstanding game with 43 assists and 14 digs.
Saturday evening, the Lady Aggies avenged two heart-breaking regular season losses at the hands of Texas by knocking off the Lady Longhorns, 9-15, 15-13, 15-13, 15-9, to advance to the finals. Bronner continued to dominate, recording 21 kills and adding a .395 hitting percentage. Wente threw in 10 digs and 63 assists as the Lady Aggies held UT to a .175 hitting percentage.
The Lady Aggies finished the season with a 18-12 record.

done is one. But with A&M ranked eighth in the polls, I'm afraid a lot of unanswered questions will go unanswered. A season that could have ended with a Southwest Conference championship and a Cotton Bowl victory, will end with a big "what if."
But in a way, the '94-'95 season didn't end on a negative note. Surely, SWC stars like Thomas and Armstrong will go on to successful careers in the pros. And the the senior class did make their mark in the record books. And, most importantly, they are winners despite probation. And from all the fans who watched the senior class provide four years of incredible football, we say "Thanks."
