

Dahmer

at a hospital about an hour after he was found.

Dahmer, who had been imprisoned since his crimes came to light in 1991, had been attacked once before. In July, an inmate tried to cut his throat during a chapel service, but the razor blade attached to a plastic handle fell apart before it could hurt Dahmer.

At the time, Sullivan said that it appeared to have been an isolated incident and that Dahmer, who was serving 16 life sentences, was not believed to be in imminent danger.

"Oh my God! My son! How could this happen?" Dahmer's mother, Joyce Flint, said when TV's "Hard Copy" informed her of his death.

The other victim in Tuesday's attack was Jesse Anderson, who was serving a life sentence for stabbing and bludgeoning his wife to death.

"Dahmer had a death wish, and I know that he didn't have the gumption to do it himself, so I had predicted that the day would come when he would be killed in prison," said Gerald Boyle, Dahmer's lawyer at trial.

"He never expressed fear," his stepmother, Shari Dahmer, told WJW-TV in Cleveland. "From the day he was arrested he felt he deserved anything that he got."

Dahmer's gruesome past came to light in July 1991, when a handcuffed man flagged down police and led officers to Dahmer's reeking apartment. Police later lugged oil drums packed with body parts from the one-bedroom apartment.
