Justice Departmen accuses real esate agent of aiding German Nazis

(AP) — The Justice Depa ment moved to strip an O real estate agent of his U citizenship Wednesday grounds he allegedly perse ed Jews and others while se ing in the Nazi-sponso Lithuanian Security Po during World War II.

Citing captured records the Lithuanian Central St Archives, the department's O fice of Special Investigation which hunts Nazis in this cou try, charged that Algimant Dailide, 73, on at least one oc sion participated in the arrest Jews who had escaped fr barbed-wire-enclosed ghetto the province around Vilni Lithuania's capital.

The records show those Je were jailed, the governme said, noting that in such cas Jews routinely were executed otherwise punished.

A recording machine a swered the phone at Dailid home in Brecksville, a subu 12 miles south of Clevela where, OSI chief Eli Rosenbe said, Dailide still owns and o erates a small realty busine Messages for Dailide were n immediately returned.

In a complaint filed in U District Court in Cleveland, t government said the Lithuani Security Police, or Saugum acted as a subordinate com nent of the German Security P lice and Security Service a had duties that paralleled th of the German Gestapo.

The Saugumas assisted N occupying forces in enforc the persecution of Vilnius Je by arresting ghetto escape and turning them over for e cution, the government said.

The complaint said Dail spent part of his time in Sau mas working for a special u tion responsible for tracki suspected communists and Je living outside the ghettos in t ing or on false papers and m Jews who hid or aided them.
