Spurs charge past SuperSonics

Robinson and Person pick up slack for missing Rodman.

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — David Robinson scored 24 points and Chuck Person had 14 points and a season-high 11 rebounds as the San Antonio Spurs, playing without injured Dennis Rodman, beat the Seattle SuperSonics 104-96 Monday night.

The Spurs won their fourth straight game. Rodman, the NBA's leading rebounder, was placed on the injured list earlier in the day with a separated right shoulder following a motorcycle accident Sunday. He is expected to miss up to four weeks.

Seattle, which had won five in a row, was led by Shawn Kemp's 23 points and Sam Perkins' 21.

San Antonio, which never trailed, pulled away from a 58-58 tie early in the third quarter behind 8 points by Robinson for an 84-74 lead after three quarters.

Seattle got no closer than 5 points in the fourth period as Avery Johnson and Doc Rivers each scored 5 points for the Spurs.

The Spurs tied a team record by making six 3-point shots in the first half in taking a 52-47 lead. San Antonio had five 3-pointers in the first quarter. The Spurs made 8 of 22 3-pointers, with Vinny Del Negro hitting three.

Track: Winning attitudes spurned by Bonnen's run the Aggies. From 1947 to 1953, A&M captured six of seven SWC Track and Field Championships.

Last Saturday, members of those Aggie track teams gathered to remember their accomplishments.

"Back in those days, practically no one had a scholarship," Bonnen said. "We were out there because we had a lot of team spirit and wanted to run track for Texas A&M."

"The coaches spotted a lot of the guys in physical education classes. They would see a guy that they thought had some ability and put him on the track team."

The Aggies were coached by Col. Andy Anderson and Ray Putnam.

"We had two very fine coaches and athletes with a lot of character," said Anderson's son Rusty. "My father had a great deal of enthusiasm for track. He was able to spot ability and work with athletes to make them better."

Anderson and Putnam helped put three Aggies in the Olympics from the 1947-'53 era.

Art Harnden won a gold medal in 1948 running the first leg of the 1600-meter relay in London. High jumper Walter "Buddy" Davis captured the gold while Darrow Hooper took home a silver in the shot put in 1952 in Helsinki. Hooper missed winning the gold medal by two centimeters.

In 1948, the Aggies' 1600-meter relay team of Harnden, Ray Holbrook, Don Mitchell and E.G. Bilderback surprised the country at a meet in Los Angeles.

"The meet was at the end of the year, and the top four teams and individuals in each event were invited to participate," Bilderback said. "Nobody knew who we were so it was quite a shock when we knocked two seconds off the world record."

Julian Herring was a distance runner on the back end of the Aggies' winning streak.

"The vets took care of the younger guys," Herring said. "I remember Bilderback yelling at me because he didn't think my grades were as high as they should be. The vets set the tone for A&M track."

But the late 1940s and early 1950s track teams set the standard.

Mashburn's late shooting lifts Mavs to victory

CLEVELAND (AP) — Jamal Mashburn atoned for miserable shooting with 11 points in the second overtime, including the winning layup with 2.4 seconds left, to lead the Dallas Mavericks past the Cleveland Cavaliers 102-100 Monday night.

Mashburn scored 16 of his 22 points in the two extra periods, including the Mavericks' last seven points of the game. He was 10-for-26 from the floor in the game.

Cleveland had one last chance to tie, but Tyrone Hill hurried short hook miss everything at the buzzer.

Hill scored a career-high 23 points and Terrell Brandon had 27 for Cleveland, which has had nine of 12. Jason Kidd scored 22 for Dallas, which has won four of its last five games.

The Cavs led by 15 in the third quarter, but Kidd led comeback in which Dallas reeled off the first nine points of the fourth quarter to make a game of it. He started the flurry with a three-point play, then assisted on three straight baskets before Cleveland scored its first point of the period.

Dallas tied it 83-83 on Ray Tarpley's two foul shots with 2 seconds left in regulation, and Brandon's 20-footer bounced off the rim at the horn.
