Baseball teams wheel, deal

The Expos make two trades as teams scramble to fill their rosters.

The great fire sale began in Montreal and spread to Kansas City as financially strapped baseball teams began to unload high-priced talent they can no longer afford.

The Expos, hoping to get their payroll down, traded bullpen stopper John Wetteland to the New York Yankees on Wednesday and then dealt staff ace Ken Hill to the St. Louis Cardinals. The Royals sent outfielder Brian McRae to the Chicago Cubs.

Meanwhile, owners and players agreed to move up opening day to April 25, a day earlier than their original deal, with the Florida Marlins playing host to the Los Angeles Dodgers at 7:35 p.m. EDT.

The American League schedule, barring rainouts, calls for Cal Ripken to tie Lou Gehrig's consecutive-games record on Sept. 5 at home against California. He would break it the following day at home against the Angels.

Friday should be a busy day in baseball. It is the date both to tender contracts to arbitration-eligible players and the date for each team to offer arbitration to its former players who became free agents last fall. If a free agent isn't offered arbitration, he can't resign with his old club until May 15.

And Friday also is the deadline for players — except non-

U.S. citizens — to report to spring training.
Montreal general manager Kevin Malone said the Expos — whose 74-40 record was baseball's best last season — said the team is not giving up, but is regrouping.

"This is not a fire sale," he said. "A fire sale is when you're giving guys away."
Still, the movement of players Wednesday and what is expected later in the week should be typical of the direction in which baseball is headed. The players agreed to return after a federal judge issued an injunction forcing owners to maintain the system of the expired collective bargaining agreement.

With the owners unable to get a salary cap and to away with salary arbitration, the small-market teams cannot afford high-salaried players.
"The economics of the current system is the reason we're making the changes," Malone admitted. "These deals are financially motivated."

Expos management has claimed it will lose $20 million because of the strike and is trying to pare its payroll to about $12 million — a drop of $6 million.
Wetteland had 25 saves in 52 appearances for the Expos in 1994 and is considered among the top closers in the game.

In return, the Expos got Fernando Seguignol, a 20-year-old outfielder and a player to be named later. Hill, 28, finished second in the National League Cy Young Award voting last season. He was 16-5 with a 3.32 ERA.

Kidd leads Mavs past LA

The rookie point guard records his first-ever triple-double.

DALLAS (AP) — Rookie Jason Kidd got the first triple-double of his pro career with 19 points, 12 assists and 10 rebounds as the Dallas Mavericks kept their long-shot playoff hopes alive with a 130-111 victory over the Los Angeles Lakers on Wednesday night.

Jamal Mashburn led the Mavericks with 32 points, and Lorenzo Williams added a career-high 19 points and 15 rebounds as the Mavericks won for the 10th time in their last 13 games. George McCloud came off the bench to contribute 18 points and Lucius Harris had 16 for Dallas.

Nick Van Exel scored 24 points and Eddie Jones added 22 points to pace the Lakers, who had their three-game winning streak snapped. The Lakers had won eight of their previous nine games.

The Mavericks took control with a 14-4 run over the final 5:07 of the third quarter, expanding a 78-73 lead to 92-79 entering the fourth quarter. Popeye Jones got the decisive spurt under way with consecutive baskets, and Kidd led Dallas' third-quarter spurt with eight points and four rebounds.

The Mavericks turned the game into a rout by opening the fourth quarter with a 19-12 run for a 111-91 advantage.
Dallas bolted to a 25-11 lead over the first eight minutes before the Lakers recovered, cutting the deficit to 31-25 entering the second quarter.

The game was tied 62-62 at halftime. Mashburn's 20 points led the Mavericks while Eddie Jones hit seven of eight first-half shots to pace the Lakers with 18 points.
The Mavericks were without their top-scoring reserve, Roy Tarpley, who was sidelined because of the flu.
