NEWS BRIEFS

Fun run to benefit Special Olympics

Alpha Phi Omega is sponsoring a fun run Saturday morning to benefit the Special Olympics. The race begins at 8 a.m. in the MSC plaza area. Registration continues today in the MSC for $12. Late registration begins Saturday at 6:30 a.m. for $15. Prizes will be awarded to the top man and top woman finishers in the race and to the winner in each age group.

Tournament to benefit Scotty's House

The Charity Challenge II volleyball tournament will be Saturday at the University Tower sports area. Last year's tournament raised more than $5,000 to benefit Jason Henson, who needed a liver transplant. This year's proceeds will benefit Scotty's House, a children's advocacy center. The entry fee is $10 and the winner of the double elimination tournament will receive $150.

Americans jailed in India return home

HOUSTON (AP) — Four American missionaries jailed in India for almost a week after a religious rally turned violent returned home to the Houston area Thursday.

The group was in India leading a Christian crusade for Gospel to the Unreached Millions, a Houston-based missionary group.

The men said the Indian government posted $3,000 bail for each of them. They were told to board the next available flight for the United States and that the charges against them, including attempted murder, inciting riot and assault, would be dropped.

Death Row inmate is killed in fight

HUNTSVILLE (AP) — An uncooperative condemned killer was in solitary confinement Thursday as Texas prison authorities tried to piece together a death row recreation yard fracas that left another condemned man stabbed through the temple with a prison-made knife.

Maurice Andrews, 39, spared from death a month ago when a court issued a reprieve only hours before he could have been executed, was killed with the knife known as a shank.

POLICE BEAT

The following incidents were reported to the University Police Department between March 31 and April 5.

Criminal Mischief

Parking Area 51 - A 1990 Honda was damaged when someone walked across its hood and roof.

Avenue B Apartments - The rear window of a vehicle was broken out.

North Houston Street - The passenger's side mirror was damaged by a subject who was crossing the street in front of her vehicle. The subject stopped in the street and struck the mirror with his hand as the victim drove by.

Making Alcohol Available to Minors

East side of Dormitory 10 - Several individuals were observed consuming alcoholic beverages. Investigation revealed that two individuals purchased the alcohol and placed it in a dormitory room. They did not try to prohibit underage individuals from consuming the alcohol. Citations were issued to the two individuals responsible. Citations were also issued to three minors for possession of an alcoholic beverage.

Places Weapons Prohibited

Rangeland Resource Area/Dormitory 7 - Upon investigating reports of gunshots fired at the Rangeland Resource Area, the officers learned that 15 to 18 shots were fired from a handgun. They found 17 spent casings. The officers identified the two subjects who fired the weapon. A Ruger GP100 .357 caliber revolver, 221 rounds of .38 Special ammunition and four 12-gauge shotgun shells were recovered, with the suspect's cooperation, from his dormitory room. The weapon and ammunition were placed in evidence storage at the University Police Department.

Southside Parking Garage - A rifle in a case was in a vehicle parked on the fourth level of the garage. The owner thought weapons were prohibited in the dormitories, but were allowed in the parking lots. The subject was advised of the state law violation and was instructed to remove the weapon from campus property.

Possession of a Controlled Substance (Marijuana)

Walton Hall - An odor of a substance believed to be marijuana was detected coming from a residence hall room. The investigation led to the arrest of three individuals.

Evading Arrest

Walton Hall - During the investigation of the marijuana case, one of the subjects residence hall attempt to avoid apprehension by exiting from a second-floor window. The subject was apprehended following a foot pursuit to the residence hall area. Simpson Drill Field. The subject was incarcerated at Brazos County Jail.

Theft of Service

Northside Parking Garage - A witness observed an individual exit the garage without paying.

Driving While Intoxicated

Texas Avenue and Bush - Two intoxicated individuals were arrested and incarcerated at the Brazos County Jail, two separate incidents.

Misdemeanor Theft

Sterling C. Evans Lane - The victim's black Liz Claiborne purse, with a tan wallet, I.D. card, Texas driver's license and two credit cards, was stolen from a fourth-floor table.

Southside of Sbisal Center - Recovered Property

The victim's campaign sign was stolen. The sign was returned after being dumped in a trash yard on Glade Street.

Harassment

Keathley Hall - The victim received several annoying phone calls. The original caller has been identified.

Rangers locate missing Capitol property

The pieces recovered include doorknobs and brass hinges.

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Rangers have recovered more than 100 historic pieces of hardware stolen during the recent Capitol restoration project, the State Preservation Board said.

The Rangers were called in last month when the items — including Lone Star doorknobs and brass door hinges imprinted with the words "Texas Capitol" — could not be found. "We are relieved that these valuable pieces of Texas history were recovered so rapidly," Dealey Herndon, executive director of the board, said in a statement.

Officials for the first time have acknowledged that they believe the items were stolen, but they don't know when, the Austin American-Statesman reported Thursday.

"If (the Rangers) identify whoever is responsible, we certainly will prosecute," Ms. Herndon said. "This isn't a game."

No arrests have been made, said Laureen Chernow, Texas Department of Public Safety, which includes the Rangers.

The board had not been to determine how many items were missing, despite inquiries conducted as part of the Capitol's $187 million renovation.

Ms. Herndon said batches of property have been found and the Texas Rangers say more will likely be recovered. She estimated the value of the recovered items at $5,000 or more.
