HELP WANTED

The Department of Rec Sports will be holding two open forums for students interested in employment for next fall in the Student Recreation Center. The meetings will be held:

Tues., April 18, 7-8 p.m., 274 Read
Wed., April 19, 7-8 p.m., 267 G. Rollie White

Information presented will include jobs in the following areas:

- * Intramurals * Medics * Aquatics * Facilities *
- * Fitness * Outdoors * Publicity/Promotions *

Supervisors in each of these areas will be on hand to explain their area and staff needs for the new building. More information will be in next Monday's Battalion.

YOU'RE INVITED TO JOIN THE REC SPORTS TEAM!

FAST FACTS about the Student Recreation Center

- The $36.4 million project's 286,000 sq. ft. is almost the size of five football fields!
- The Weight and Fitness Room - 14,000 sq. ft. area with machine weights, free weights, cardio-vascular equipment, and cardio-theatre.
- Lots of space for aerobics classes - Five activity rooms with wood flooring for aerobics, dance, and martial arts.
- Tons of room for free play - Multi-purpose gyms with wood flooring available for basketball, volleyball, soccer, and badminton.
- Facility to handle expanded outdoor recreation - Outdoor equipment rentals and adventure program services.
- Indoor jogging track with a view - 1/4 mile, four-lane walking/jogging track with a breathtaking view of Olsen Field.
- Indoor Rock Climbing Wall - 42 ft. structure with movable hand and foot holds.
- Pools to swim, exercise, and relax in - 50 meter eight-lane Olympic size pool, five lane instructional pool (4 ft. depth), diving pool with 1 and 3 meter springboards and competitive platforms, two large co-ed spas.
- Outdoor Area - just for the fun of it! Six-lane lap and free-form pool with cool-water spa, four sand volleyball and three basketball courts, covered pavillion and picnic area with barbeque grills. Great for student organization get-togethers.

What does this mean to the students of Texas A&M? A commitment of the best customer service for the best student body!
