He also said by crossing the picket lines, he would get more baseball in and it could possibly help him move up closer to the majors. The move paid off as Saylor jumped up from the Class A Quad City River Bandits team to the Class AA would not let a baseball strike interfere with that. The replacement players were shown throughout the media as being error-prone in the field and striking out or hitting weak hits at the plate.

bly been the only Ranger ball-club to ever contend for a division championship. And some of the replacement players did

By knowing both a replacement player and a minor leaguer who crossed the picket line, I began to realize how wrong we are for making fun of them just because they were not Ken Griffey Jr. or Jose Canseco.
