Lady Aggies hope for clear skies in Tennessee

Hard-hitting softball team looks for success at tournament.

By Kristina Buffin THE BATTALION

No matter where it plays, rain seems to interrupt the 25th-ranked Texas A&M softball team. The Lady Aggies are looking forward to dry skies at the Frost Cutlery Collegiate Tournament in Chattanooga, Tennessee this weekend.

"This tournament will serve as a great way to get on a roll," coach Bob Brock said. "We haven't had any type of consistency with all the rain outs we've had. Our biggest goal is to play at the same level that we have been."

The Lady Aggies finished first in 1993 and finished second last year in Chattanooga and expect to face tough teams this weekend.

"This is the toughest tournament from here on out," shortstop Kendall Richards said. "Last weekend (at the Tulsa Tournament) brought up our confidence and if we hit like we did (last weekend) we shouldn't have a problem. If we do well this weekend it will definitely boost our confidence and help us carry over to the rest of the season."

A&M will be competing against Tennessee Tech University, Centenary and the University of Virginia on Friday. The Lady Aggies will then face the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga and Winthrop College on Saturday. The championship game is scheduled for 3 p.m. on Sunday.

"The level of competition will be real good," Brock said. "There will be top teams from the East Coast and the South. It has been a good test in the last two years. Hopefully it will let us pick up some momentum."

The Lady Aggies have been on an offensive rampage in the last five games. Five players have batting averages over .300 including Richards' team high average, .406.

"Our hitting has been tremendous," pitcher Erin Field said. "The middle of the lineup is coming around real well. This tournament should determine the outcome of the season."

Field, whose is hitting .330, and Richards have registered at least one hit in the last eight games. Pitching will also be important to A&M's success in Chattanooga. During the team's five-game win streak, the pitching staff has given up only 4.3 runs per game.

"Our pitchers have been working hard every day," Brock said. "Their doing a great job and working hard to do better." Field attributes her improvement and success to the help of assistant coach Shawn Andaya. "Shawn has done a great job with me," Field said. "She has given me more confidence. All of the pitchers complement each other well because of our different speeds and that helps us against our opponents."

A&M posts a 5-0 record against the teams that it will face in its bracket. A&M hopes that success in Tennessee will fuel its momentum. "We feel confident right now," Field said. "This weekend should give us some momentum and will be a big boost in our confidence level."

Rangers sign Tettleton

The two-time All-Star catcher gets a one-year, $550,000 deal.

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — The Texas Rangers decided to ditch their plan to share the designated hitter spot on Wednesday when they signed Mickey Tettleton to a one-year contract for $550,000. Tettleton, who made $1.5 million last year when he made the All-Star team for the second time, probably will replace Jose Canseco in the lineup and will be used to protect cleanup hitter Juan Gonzalez.

Tettleton is a switch-hitter with good power — hitting at least 30 homers in each of three previous seasons with the Detroit Tigers. He hit .248 with 17 homers and 51 RBIs in 107 games last year. Although DH will be his primary job, Tettleton also may spell Will Clark at first and will be a third catcher behind Ivan Rodriguez and Dave Valle. He also can help out in right field.
