Cowboys to play 49ers Nov. 12

IRVING, Texas (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys will have to wait until Nov. 12 for revenge against the Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers.

The 49ers, who beat the Cowboys 38-28 in the National Football Conference championship game on Jan. 15, will host San Francisco at Texas Stadium in a 3 p.m. game.

Dallas has five nationally televised games, including three Monday Night Football telecasts.

"We have five games that enjoy the national audience without any competition from any other NFL games, and I don't know when that's happened before," Cowboys owner Jerry Jones said Tuesday.

"It's noteworthy that we are opening the season on Monday Night Football, clearly a showcase for any team ... and we're closing the season on Monday Night Football," he said.

Jones noted that 13 of the Cowboys' 16 regular-season games last season went to over 80 percent of the country, and with only one noon start this season, the team's national TV exposure could be even greater this year.

The Cowboys appear on Monday night TV for the season opener on Sept. 4 at the Meadowlands against the New York Giants, on Nov. 6 in Texas Stadium against the Philadelphia Eagles, and on the road against the Arizona Cardinals on Christmas night.

DiNardo: Reflecting on final season

my mind."

DiNardo said her play during her senior season, although sporadic at times, has capped off her career at A&M.

"At the beginning of the season, I played well," DiNardo said. "Then, I hit a slump. Overall, it was a pretty good season."

DiNardo said the proudest moment of her career at A&M came through an invitation.

"I got invited to the All-American," DiNardo said. "I went two years in a row and I played players from all over the nation."

The toughest player DiNardo said she has played is superstar Monica Seles.

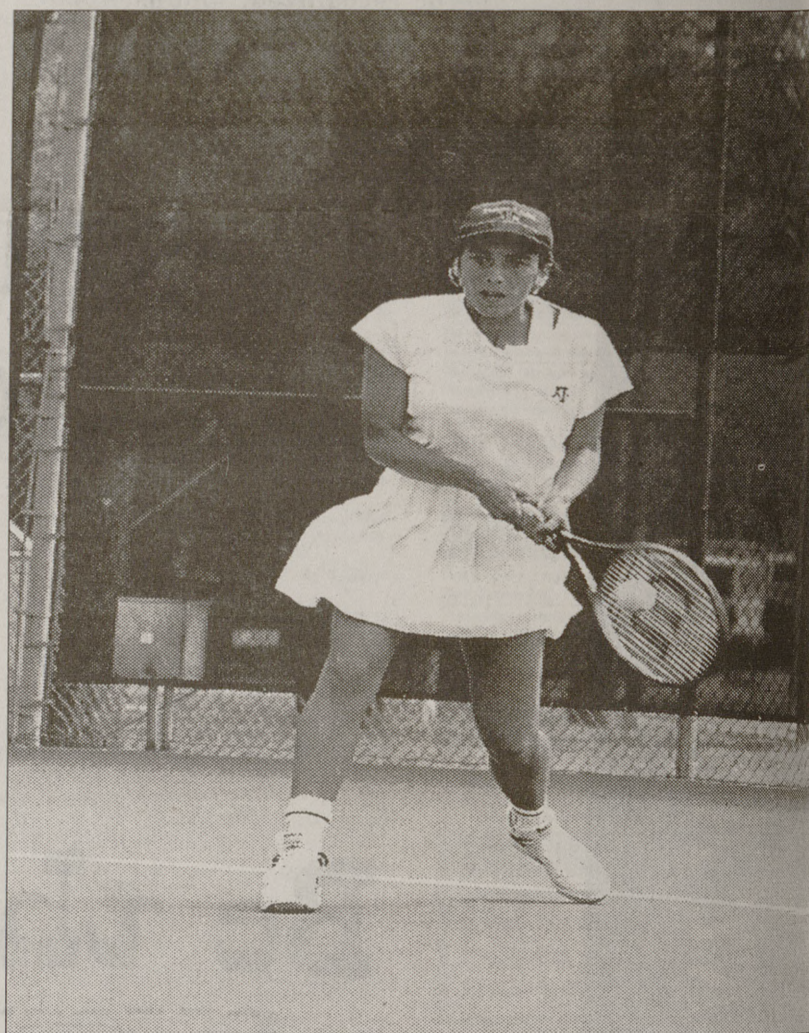

"I played her when I was 14," DiNardo said. "I lived at a tennis academy in Florida and got the opportunity to play her. I won, maybe, one game."

DiNardo, who graduates in August, said tennis will always be a part of her life, but she realizes that it is time for a change.

"It's a whole different life now," DiNardo said. "It feels like we just have a day off right now. It's time to move on."

DiNardo said her involvement with other organizations on campus gave her an outlet from the demands of being an athlete at A&M.

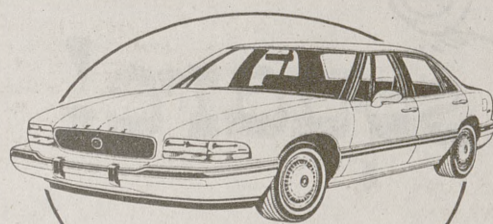

"It's hard being involved in sports and other outside activities," DiNardo said. "But, the more you involved, the more you will become a well-rounded person."
