Band names 1995-1996 drum majors

The Aggie Band has named its drum majors for the 1995-96 school year.

Jonathan B. Luikens, an environmental studies major, will be head drum major. Infantry Band drum major will be Hung. I. Lee, a biomedical science major. Artillery Band drum major will be Kristofer Y. Jarboe, an economics major.

The three drum majors will lead the 300-member band, the largest military marching band in the country, in its performances and practices.

POLICE BEAT

The following incidents were reported to the University Police Department between April 24 and May 1.

Burglary of a Vehicle
 Parking Area 61 - Two burglary suspects were detected as they fled Parking Area 61. The instruments of the offense were found in their possession along with a Pioneer CD stereo that was stolen from one of two vehicles burglarized. The adult suspect was incarcerated in the Brazos County Jail and charged with two counts of burglary of a vehicle, criminal trespass and failure to identify. The suspect was also served a criminal mischief warrant. The juvenile was charged with the vehicle burglaries and placed in the Brazos County Juvenile Detention Center.

Misdemeanor Theft
 MSC Bookstore - Supplemental Information - Recovered Property - The victim reported her backpack had been found in an unsecured locker at the entrance to the bookstore. All the property was present, except for the textbooks. One of the textbooks had been sold to a Northgate bookstore.
 Walton Hall - A chrome frame

21-speed bicycle with Onza bars ends and add-on parts was stolen.
 Sterling C. Evans Library - An unattended Chinese/English translator electronic dictionary was stolen from a study area on the fourth floor.
 Cain Hall - A black six-speed Diamond Back Outlook bicycle was stolen.
 Dormitory 10 - A 10-foot metal arrow, which is considered a Corps company symbol, was removed from the fourth floor.
 Sterling C. Evans Library - The victim's navy JanSport backpack with two textbooks and a calculator was stolen from a study cubicle on the fourth floor.
 Southside Parking Garage - The victim's tan car cover was stolen from her Toyota Celica.
 Architecture Building Bicycle Rack - A sky-blue Diamond Back bicycle was stolen.
 Sterling C. Evans Library - The victim's chemistry book was stolen while the victim was taking a nap.
 Appelt Hall - Internal parts were removed from a computer keyboard.

Public Intoxication/Disorderly Conduct
 Walton Hall East Entrance - Two subjects were arrested and transported to the Brazos County Jail.

Forgery
 MSC Bookstore - A subject who has forged $1,800 in bad checks has been identified.
 Haas Hall - The victim reported someone entered her residence hall room and removed checks numbered 526 to 600. The victim was unaware of the theft until April 26. A total of $3,970.61 in forged checks has been returned to the victim's bank.

Disorderly Conduct by Language
 Walton Hall - The victim reported that as she walked by the east side of Walton Hall, a group of men on the third floor yelled several derogatory remarks.

Disorderly Conduct
 Parking Area 3 - A citation was issued to a subject urinating in public.

Criminal Attempt/Misdemeanor Theft
 Parking Area 61 - During a patrol of campus property, the left front headlight assembly of a 1989 Nissan Sentra was found sitting on the left front bumper. Upon closer inspection, it was determined the lens had been forcibly removed and the only things holding the fixture on the bumper were the electrical wires. The headlight assembly was removed for safekeeping pending notification of the owner.

Unauthorized Solicitation - Violation of University Regulations
 Parking Area 50 - Two individuals were detected selling stereo speakers from a Chevrolet van. Investigation revealed the subjects had a College Station solicitation permit and were working for a San Antonio based company. The subjects were issued criminal trespass warnings and escorted from campus.

Harassment
 Moses Hall - The victim received several annoying telephone calls from an anonymous individual.

Sexual Assault
 Fowler Hall - The victim's aunt, who has temporary custody, reported her niece had consensual sexual relations with a subject in a campus residence hall. The victim's mother had dropped her off to meet with the suspect, who was an acquaintance of the family. A fact in this case is whether or not the suspect had knowledge of the victim's correct age. The incident has been interviewed and the case will be prepared for review by the prosecuting attorney.

Driving Intoxicated/Unlawfully Rying a Weapon
 Coke Street - An intoxicated motorist was incarcerated in Brazos County Jail. A wrapped with duct tape end was observed in the suspect's vehicle.
 Wellborn Road - An intoxicated motorist was incarcerated in Brazos County Jail.

Criminal Mischief
 Parking Area 2 - A rock used to break out the left headlight of a 1987 Toyota.

Assault
 Hobby Hall - The victim and her boyfriend were involved in a conversation that got out of control. The exchange escalated from verbal to physical confrontation with the victim sustaining several abrasions to the face. The victim told the investigating officer that she did wish to file charges.
