Pearl Jam may end Ticketmaster wa

Pearl Jam

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Locked out of most large arenas for its current tour, Pearl Jam is reassessing its 18-month war against Ticketmaster.

The Seattle-based band may use the giant ticket agency in planning new show dates, band manager Kelly Curtis said.

"I think you'll find that the band is just going to do whatever it takes to just play. And if that means they're going to have to play some Ticketmaster shows, they're going to play Ticketmaster shows," Curtis said.

Pearl Jam had planned its current 11-city tour around sites that didn't use Ticketmaster, which the band accused of price gouging and monopoly. It was a struggle.

"It took us a whole year to plan these summer dates, and we're not going to go through that again," Curtis said Tuesday. "We did want to make a point on how difficult it is to tour without Ticketmaster and we made the point."

Many shows sold out. But the band was effectively locked out of most large-scale venues because many sites over 5,000 seats rely exclusively on Ticketmaster, Garman said.

"There's not a single stadium booked on the West Coast because there's not a single stadium that doesn't use Ticketmaster," Garman said.

Herndon arrested for indecency, drug

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Country star Ty Herndon faces indecency and drug possession charges after allegedly exposing himself to an undercover officer.

Ironically, Herndon, 33, was arrested at a park in east Fort Worth Tuesday night, about 90 minutes before he was scheduled to perform at a downtown hotel for a state convention of police chiefs, police said Wednesday.

Herndon, whose full name is Boyd T. Henderson, was arrested on charges of indecent exposure and possession of a controlled substance, Fort Worth police Lt. Greg Bradley said. A packet of yellow powder found in Herndon's wallet was later identified as methamphetamine, police say.

Herndon, who lives in Dallas, was freed on $500 bond that night after being arrested at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Police said Herndon asked an undercover officer to accompany him to a nearby wooded area of the park. The officer reported that the singer sat on a log, exposed his genitals and began masturbating. The report says the man then asked the officer if he was a policeman. The officer allegedly identified himself and arrested him.

"We don't give special favors in circumstances like that to anyone," Bradley said. "It's unfortunate for him; it's unfortunate for us. It's an opportunity for him to re-evaluate his life and make some measures to straighten that up."

Herndon, originally from Butler, Ala., also was scheduled to play at one of Texas' largest country dance halls in August, Billy Bob's Texas in Fort Worth.

That event was still on as Wednesday.

"We don't know many details and as far as we're concerned he's innocent until proven guilty," club spokeswoman Pam Miller said. "This is the 90s, and people are much more forgiving about personal problems and scandals than they were, say, in the 70s."
