Schmidt plugs Rose in induction speech

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. (AP) Mike Schmidt turned his Hall of Fame podium into a pulpit to promote Pete Rose, telling the biggest induction crowd ever Sunday that it was time to make a place for base-ball's career hits leader in Cooperstown.

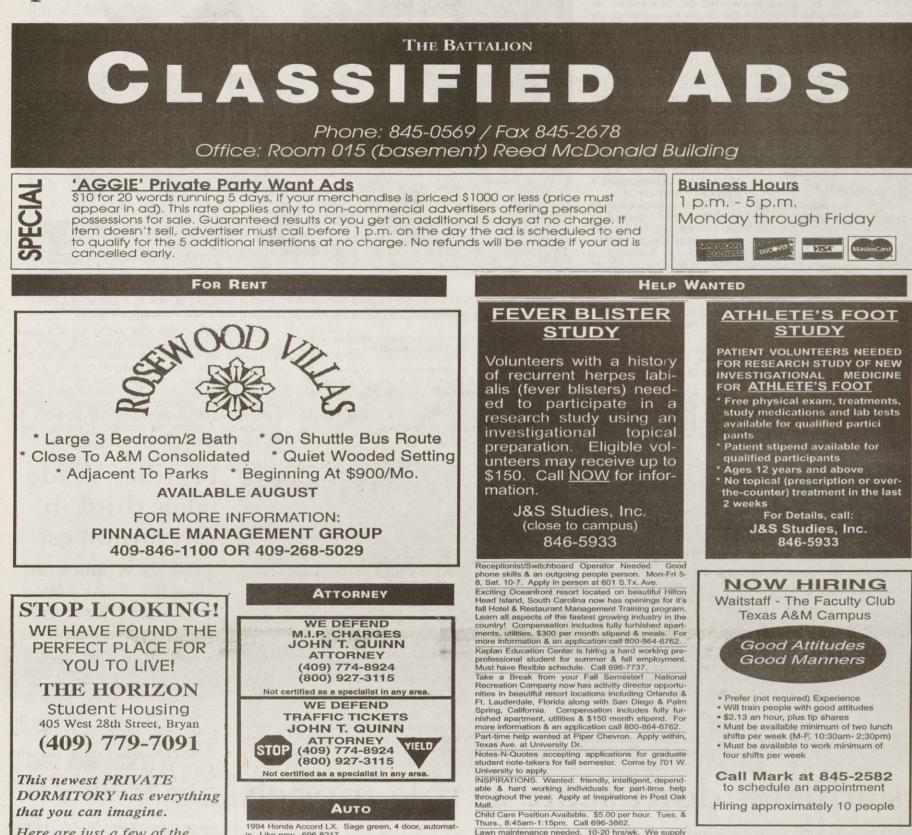

Wearing a No. 14 lapel pin to honor his former teammate, Schmidt twice mentioned him during a 20-minute speech.

Schmidt's references to Rose drew large ovations from the crowd, estimated at 25,000-28,000 and mostly from Philadelphia. Several times during the two-hour ceremonies, there were sporadic chants of "We want Pete! We want Pete!"

"That will be covered, I can guarantee you," Richie Ash-burn, one of five men being inducted, told fans with a laugh, "but not by me."

But there was absolutely no reaction — no smiles, no hand claps, no nothing — from 30 previously elected Hall of Famers who sat stone silent around Schmidt.

And, early in the program before Schmidt was introduced, Johnny Bench was heard by those in the front rows to mut-ter "you can have him" when the crowd clamored for Rose.

Ten Dream Team III members announce

Hakeem Olajuwon will play in his first Olympic Games in 1996.

NEW YORK (AP) - Lenny Wilkens got his Dream Team on Sunday, and he wants this squad to be as distinctive as the one that rolled to the gold medal in Barcelona in 1992.

An assistant coach of the original Dream Team, Wilkens sidesteps the subject of which sidesteps the subject of which might be the better squad — the original with Magic and Michael or the new one with Hakeem and Shaq. "I'm a little partial to the first team," Wilkens said Sun-day. "I don't think you'll see a team like that again. Each team like that again. Each team will make its mark.

"We're going to go out there and be us and not somebody else. We're not going to try to compete with what that team Mike Greenwell's miscue allowed the goahead run to score.

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Otis Nixon's line drive to left field clanked off the glove of Mike Greenwell, helping Texas score two more runs off a Boston error and giving the Rangers a 7-6 victory Sunday night. The Red Sox, who lost a four-run lead in part because of consecutive errors on grounders to the mound in the fifth, had just tied the game 5-5 in the seventh on Willie McGee's homer, Boston's fourth solo shot of the game. Texas rallied again in the eighth when Luis Ortiz, brought up from Triple A Oklahoma City earlier in the day after Steve Buechele was released, singled
