SERVICE
APO was founded on three principles: leadership, friendship, and service. These ideals are those similar to the Boy Scouts of America and the students here at Texas A&M. These beliefs are also the cornerstones of our Co-Ed organization. In addition to helping the A&M student population, we also work in the local community.
ALPHA PHI OMEGA
If you'd like to join a different kind of organization - one whose desires include helping others and having a great time, come to ONE of two informational meetings.
