LEONE: Logic took a backseat in sports this week

The other showed wide receiver Riley Washington at practice in a prisoner outfit, complete with ball and chain. Phillips is under NCAA investigation for allegedly driving a 1995 Mustang convertible in the offseason that he did not buy, and Washington will stand trial on a charge of attempted second-degree murder.

Oh, Phillips was also arrested Sunday for allegedly beating his ex-girlfriend. He was kicked off the team by Osborne. Not to rub salt in the wounds or anything, but with Phillips removing himself from the Heisman race, Leeland McElroy is looking even better.

Warrick Dunn, Florida State's shifty tailback, is McElroy's closest competition right now. Dunn had 180 yards and two touchdowns against Clemson this past weekend. Of course, neither one of them has had a week similar to Navy quarterback Chris McCoy, who set a Midshipmen single-game total offense record with 398 yards versus SMU.

Pete Sampras beat up on Andre Agassi to win the first of the U.S. Open on Sunday and took a 9-8 personal series lead over his fellow American. Don't feel too badly for Agassi - he has Brooke Shields to console him.

I wasn't a big fan of this major league baseball wild card business - I thought it would make a boring season even worse. But I take it all back now because somehow the Rangers and the Astros are still in the hunt for the playoffs despite the fact that they are both just a notch or so above .500. Five bucks says that the Little League World Series team from Taiwan could give them both a game. Taiwan has better pitching, anyway.

It has been said before, and it needs to be said again. Somebody needs to slap some grass on Kyle Field. Turf bad, grass good. Texas Christian, Michigan and Oklahoma tore up their carpets and put in grass a few years ago. Alabama, California, Missouri and a few others switched over before this season.

The revenue generated from parking tickets alone would be enough to convert Kyle Field to the natural stuff and add one of those newfangled, retractable roof things. Maybe that's what this new general use fee increase is all about.

So Jerry Jones sold his first three grandchildren to bring Deion Sanders to Dallas. I knew it was going to happen, and you knew it was going to happen. Everybody keeps wondering if Deion is worth all the dough.

Well, it's like my Uncle Roscoe used to say, "
