Rangers drop Jays

□ Bobby Witt struck out 12 batters in the 6-1 Texas win.

when he beat the Mariners Seattle, 5-1.

Rangers 6, Blue Jays

TORONTO (AP) — Bobby Witt pitched seven-hit ball and struck out 12 over eight-plus innings as the Texas Rangers improved their wild-card position with a 6-1 decision Thursday night over the Toronto Blue Jays.

The Rangers moved within one game of the AL wild-card leaders, the New York Yankees and Seattle Mariners, with their fifth straight victory. The Blue Jays lost their sixth straight.

Witt (3-2), who struck out 12 in July as a member of the Florida Marlins, set a Rangers season-high with his strikeout total. Witt, who didn't walk a batter, left after giving up the Blue Jays' seventh hit starting the ninth. Dennis Cook finished up.

Juan Guzman (3-13) gave up three runs on 12 hits over eight innings as he suffered his eighth straight loss. Guzman, who struck out three and walked one, has not won in his last nine starts, dating back to July 14,

Oilers and Browns enter game running on empty □ Neither team has moved the ball successfully on the ground.

The Oilers moved away from the run-and-shoot offense this season, hoping to be a better running team. But the millionaire-laden offensive line hasn't jelled and coach Jeff Fisher wants a quick change.

Houston Oilers want to run the football and can't. The Cleveland Browns want to run, too, but stacked defenses have kept them up in the air.

"You look at the films and there are some good things happening on our offense," Fisher said. "We're going to get better and what we have to realize is we can't afford to wait much longer."

"We'd like to run the ball better, but basically, the way it's turned out, we've got some teams come up and jam us on the line of scrimmage and gang up on the running game," Browns coach Bill Belichick said.

"We've got some good players up front that now have got to start eliminating those mistakes, and we've got to execute more."

The Oilers (1-1) will bring a more balanced attack into Sunday's game. The Browns (1-1) have gained only 130 yards rushing and gone to the air for 557 yards.

Gary Brown rushed for 101 yards in the season opener against Jacksonville, but the Oilers got only 42 yards, 1.8 per carry, in a 34-17 loss to Pittsburgh on Sunday. Houston has 202 yards rushing this season and 296 passing.

Cleveland's rushing total is the lowest in the NFL, while the passing game has blossomed under Vinny Testaverde, second in the AFC in passing. The Browns rank seventh in the NFL in passing.

Belichick isn't sure the Browns can build on their running game against the Oilers' aggressive 4-3 defense.

"Fortunately, that's opened some other things," Belichick said. "If that's the way we're going to be played, then that's the way we have to adjust. I'd be more disappointed if we couldn't do either one."

"They'll present a big challenge," Belichick said. "We've had a lot of trouble with them down there in the past with their multiple coverages, blitzing and taking away the run. That's just something we'll have to deal with."

"As long as we can do one or the other and they can't take both of them away, we should have a chance."

Testaverde is off to a good start this season even though Andre Rison has done little. The big-money free agent has caught players fit into this profile. But, it seems that the ones that do make the rest look bad as well.

or some alumnus who can't keep his wallet to himself. It's about time that athletes start understanding how much responsibility goes with being a college player. Not only do they become icons for young fans of the game, but they become representatives for their schools, and the students who attend them.

We seem to have turned our heads and accepted this corruption as part of the game. After all, it goes on everywhere, right? Even at A&M? But, I commend A&M on how it has overcome. We broke the rules, we got caught, and we have come back as the No. 3 team in the nation. It's about time that other college teams start cleaning up their act as well.

Now don't get me wrong, I know that not all college

Sherman began coaching at the collegiate level in 1981 at the University of Pittsburgh and spent time at Tulane and Holy Cross before coming to Texas A&M in 1989.

After four seasons in charge of one of the best offensive lines in the Southwest Conference, Sherman left College Station at the end of the 1993 season to join Terry Donahue's staff at UCLA.

After only one season in Westwood, Sherman and his family decided to head back.

SHERMAN: Walking the line

"We made the move out to California physically but just never really made it emotionally," said Sherman. "We have too many strong ties here at A&M."

Sherman is highly regarded by his offensive line, and they are pleased that their coach found his way back to College Station.

"Everybody around here respects Coach Sherman because he's one of the best in the business at what he does," said junior All-Southwest Conference right guard Calvin Collins. "He could move up to the NFL and be one of the best up there as well."
