CONGRATULATIONS
COMMANDANT'S TROPHY WINNERS
MATT SEGREST '95 AND BRAD TIPPETT '95

The Commandant's Trophy was initiated in 1957 to recognize members of the Platoon Leaders Class (PLC) who distinguish themselves at Officer Candidates School. Recipients of the trophies are those candidates who attain the highest leadership, physical and academic averages in their respective increments.

Matt Segrest won the Commandant's Trophy for finishing number one at the PLC Combined Course this summer. Segrest is the second Aggie to win this award, Tippet being the first.

Brad Tippet won the Commandant's Trophy for finishing number one at PLC Seniors Course, first increment. Tippet also won the trophy last year and is only the eighth person to win the trophy twice.

The Trophies will be presented during the University of Houston game on October 28 by Major General M.T. Hoppood, Jr. '65.
