Red-hot Aikman leads Cowboys

□ The All-Pro quarterback completed 24-of-31 passes for 316 yards and two touchdowns.

Dallas Cowboys 34
Green Bay Packers 24

IRVING(AP) — Troy Aikman wasn't supposed to play. He did, and the Green Bay Packers wish he didn't.

Nursing a sore right calf muscle and lacking a solid week of practice, Aikman looked in Super Bowl form Sunday as he threw two touchdown passes to lead the Dallas Cowboys to a 34-24 victory over the Green Bay Packers.

The Cowboys (5-1) earned their sixth consecutive victory over the Packers (3-2), who boasted the NFL's top-rated defense and were off to their best start since 1982.

Aikman said he was extremely doubtful for the game but a week of constant ice wraps, massages and electrical stimulus treatments, along with Green Bay secondary lapses, proved a perfect remedy. He hit 24-of-31 passes for 316 yards, his ninth NFL passing day of 300 yards or more and fourth against the Packers.

Aikman was hurt in the first period of a 27-23 loss to Washington last Sunday and missed the rest of the game.

Green Bay rallied from 21-point deficits behind Brett Favre, who ran 4 and 21 yards for touchdowns and hit tight end Mark Chmurawith an 11-yard scoring pass.

Favre's 21-yard run with 8:13 to play narrowed the count to 31-24 but Aikman answered by taking Dallas to the Green Bay 17 where Chris Boniol hit his second field goal of the game, a 35-yarder with two minutes to play to put the game out of reach.

Favre hit 21-of-41 passes for 295 yards. He failed in his quest to set the NFL record of at least two TD passes in 13 consecutive games. Favre is in the record books tied with Johnny Unitas, Dan Marino and Don Meredith at 12.

Emmitt Smith rushed for over 100 yards for the fourth time this season and scored on runs of one and 16 yards. He rushed 31 times for 106 yards. Aikman directed the Cowboys on three scoring drives and was guilty of throwing one bad pass in the first half as Dallas built a 17-3 lead.

Aikman completed a 10-yard TD pass to tight end Jay Novacek, who broke safety George Teague's tackle at the 2. Aikman completed three passes for 66 yards as Dallas played the block late in the half on an 89-yard scoring drive.

He hit Daryl Johnston for 22 yards, and followed it up with strikes of 29 and 14 yards for Irvin before Smith dived across from the one for the touchdown with 27 seconds left.

But Aikman saved the best for the second half. He hit Irvin in stride on a 48-yard touchdown pass behind rookie Craig Newsome to put the Cowboys ahead 24-3.

It was the fifth consecutive win for Dallas over Green Bay in Texas Stadium.

Moon gets revenge on hapless Oilers

□ The Vikings beat the Oilers on a 20-yard run by Robert Smith in overtime.

Minnesota Vikings 23
Houston Oilers 17

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Twenty-six times Warren Moon saved the Houston Oilers in the fourth quarter or overtime. This time, he beat them that way, with help from Dewayne Washington and Robert Smith.

After Moon threw two first-half touchdown passes and two second-half interceptions against his former team, Washington's interception set up Smith's 20-yard touchdown run Sunday in the Minnesota Vikings' 23-17 overtime victory.

Washington's interception came off backup Will Furrer, who replaced Chris Chandler, who appeared to hurt his throwing shoulder on Ed McDaniel's sack with 18 seconds left in regulation.

Houston (2-4), which lost to expansion Jacksonville last week, now has lost 18-of-22 games since trading Moon for two draft picks in April 1994.

Chuck Cecil returned an interception 20 yards in the third quarter for Houston's only touchdown. But a roughing penalty against Kanavis McGhee negated a 78-yard interception return by Darryll Lewis in the second quarter that would have given the Oilers a 13-10 lead.

One play later, Moon threw 17 yards to Cris Carter for a 17-6 advantage.

Moon had his best game of the season statistically in his first game against the Oilers, completing 28-of-43 passes for 289 yards.

Carter led the Vikings (3-2) with 12 catches for 115 yards and two touchdowns.

Trailing 17-6 after a mistake-filled first half, the Oilers tied the game on Cecil's 20-yard interception return and a 2-point conversion in the third quarter, and Al Del Greco's 44-yard field goal with 6:40 left in the game.

The Vikings won the coin toss, but couldn't move in overtime. A 60-yard punt by Mike Saxon pinned Houston at its 8.

Two plays after a 28-yard run by rookie Rodney Thomas — acquired with one of the two picks from the Moon trade — Washington intercepted Furrer's throw and returned it to the Houston 28. Smith scored on the second play.

Leading 6-3 in the second quarter, an offside penalty against Lewis on a fourth-down field goal attempt gave Minnesota a first down at the Houston 4. Two plays later, Moon threw to a diving Carter behind two Oilers in the back of the end zone for a 10-6 lead.

A 52-yard kickoff return by Mel Gray gave Houston the ball at Minnesota's 44, but Broderick Thomas pressured Chandler into a poor throw on a screen pass. Defensive end Martin Harris intercepted and the Vikings took over at the Houston 40.

Then, on third-and-4 at the 23, Lewis picked off Moon's pass and returned it 78 yards for what appeared to be the game-ahead touchdown.

But McGhee was called for roughing Moon, and two plays later Carter got wide open for his second TD and his fifth in the last three games.

LOGO COMPETITION

WIN $350 CASH

The Department of Recreational Sports wants your help in designing a new logo or insignia. $350 for first place and $150 cash for second place

The logo design should be inclusive of all our programs and not just represent the new Student Rec Center. The Department programs include sport clubs, intramurals, fitness classes, outdoor adventure, aquatics and informal recreation. The design should represent fun, athletic or recreational activities.

Rules and Regulations:

Open to all Texas A&M University Students, Faculty and Staff. All logo designs must be submitted on or before November 1, 1995. Please bring an 8 1/2 x 11 inch hand drawn or computer printout of your design to 202 Student Recreation Center attention Judy Cook. Multiple logo designs may be submitted by a single individual. All submitted designs become the property of the Department of Recreational Sports to be used as the Department deems appropriate. The first and second place winning designs will be displayed in the Rec Center. The winners will receive their awards at the Rec Center Celebration ceremony on November 18 at 9:30 a.m. Following the contest, the Department may make changes to the submitted designs. It is the intent of the Department to use and display the winning logo and a winner will be chosen; however, the Department is under no obligation to use any of the submitted or the winning designs.
