A&M routs SFA, 10-0

□ The Aggie Soccer team set a field-record for goals scored against the Lady Jacks.

By Philip Leone
THE BATTALION

In the last regular season home game of their careers, seniors Corie Hammers, Amanda Malburg, and Carrie Wheeler went out in style on Sunday afternoon as the Texas A&M soccer team pounded Stephen F. Austin State University 10-0 at the Aggie Soccer Complex.

After being honored with roses before the game from their coaches and teammates, Hammers and Malburg brightened an already special day by scoring their first goals of the season during the match. Of course, just about everyone got on the board in this rout of the outgunned and over-matched Lady Jacks.

Hammers gave the Lady Aggies the early lead in the game's 16th minute when she zipped an easy shot past the outstretched SFA goalkeeper. Sophomore forward Bryn Blalack increased the A&M lead to 2-0 with her 19th goal of the season on a break-away seven minutes later. Freshman forward Nicole Shook scored the first of her three goals with just under seven minutes to play in the first half. Freshman midfielder Misty Trujillo closed out the first half A&M of domination with her first goal of the season to bring the halftime score to 4-0.

Unfortunately for the Lady Jacks, the second half proved to be even worse, as A&M scored six more goals for the easy win.

The player of the game for A&M was Shook, who grabbed her first career hat trick and tied the team record for assists in a game with three. Shook was all smiles after the game and credited her outstanding scoring day to the combined efforts of her fellow forwards.

"I was able to get into great scoring position all day long because all the forwards really worked well together in the mid-field," Shook said. "I wasn't aware that I tied the assist record, but that just makes me even happier than I already am."

A&M Head Coach G. Guerrieri had nothing by positive things to say about his team after the game and was already looking forward to this Wednesday's Southwest Conference showdown with the undefeated Lady Mustangs of Southern Methodist University. SMU was the preseason favorite to win the conference crown and is currently ranked at the top of the NCAA Central region just ahead of the second ranked Lady Aggies. "I'm especially proud of Corie (Hammers) and Misty (Trujillo) who were able to score their final regular season goals," Guerrieri said. "It was nice to work some of the kinks out before our game last week at SMU. "We've put ourselves in the position we wanted to be in at the beginning of the season — the first and only Southwest Conference title and notch our 15-win season."
