The cornerback will play, but the NFL has ruled his contract invalid.

IRVING (AP) — Deion will at last get to do Atlanta. Deion Sanders has been cleared by the NFL to play in Sunday's game against the Falcons even though the league has ruled his contract invalid, Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones said Tuesday. "I have been assured by the league that they won't try to keep Deion from playing in Atlanta," Jones said. "It will be great to finally have Deion in the lineup." The NFL told Jones in a letter last Friday night that the seven-year, $35 million contract is $1.39 million over the salary cap and therefore invalid. The NFL called again Tuesday to tell the Cowboys that Sanders can suit up. Jones said the NFL didn't mention anything about Sanders playing for the rest of the year, but added, "They don't have a case and we'll still be playing Deion. They didn't say about the remainder of the season. But the main concern I have is for down the road and not for 1995." Sanders, who has been recovering from ankle surgery since baseball season ended, will make his Dallas debut against one of his former teams, the Falcons. Look for Sanders to play both offensively and defensively. He likely won't return kicks. Coach Barry Switzer said "Deion at cornerback will allow us to do some things differently. On offense, he will get into the game (as a receiver). We've got four or five plays he can run."

A&M is coming off two straight losses against No. 2 Hawaii.

THE BATTALION

The Texas A&M Women's Volleyball team continues Southwest Conference action tonight as they take on the defending SWC champion Houston Cougars at 7 p.m. at G. Rollie White Coliseum. The Lady Aggies go into tonight's match with a 14-4 record after dropping two matches to No.2 Hawaii last weekend in Hawaii. Head Coach Laurie Corbelli said that the team learned and gained a lot from their losses to Hawaii. "Hawaii had nothing but positive things to say about our team and our offense," Corbelli said. "We really learned a lot and gained a lot from the losses." The Aggies returned from Hawaii on Monday and have had little time to rest before getting ready for tonight's game. Corbelli said that the team may be a littled fatigued from the trip but the coaching staff convinced them it is mental. The Lady Aggies are second in the conference behind the University of Texas, the eighth-ranked team in the nation. Several Lady Aggies continue to rank among the SWC's best statistically. Senior outside hitter Andrea Williams leads the SWC in hitting efficiency with a .315 mark and sophomore Page White is second at .311. Middle blocker Cindy VanderWoude leads the SWC in conference hitting percentage at .424. VanderWoude is also on the verge of breaking into the A&L top 10 in career block solos, block assists and total blocks. A&M is 23-29 against Houston, who has been their most common opponent since 1976. The Cougars were the SWC champions last year and their only regular-season conference loss came from the Aggies at G. Rollie White Coliseum. In their most recent meeting, A&M defeated the Cougars in Houston 15-2, 15-12, 15-5 at Hofheinz Pavilion earlier this season.

Stars get great 'D', shut out Sabres 2-0

Darcy Wakaluk blocked 27 shots in registering his eighth career shutout.

DALLAS (AP) — For the Dallas Stars to challenge in the Western Conference, coach Bob Gainey says he'll need strong goaltending and sound defensive play. The Stars got both Tuesday night as Darcy Wakaluk stopped 27 shots to register his eighth career shutout and Derian Hatcher led a stingy defense for a 3-0 victory over the Buffalo Sabres. "That's exactly the kind of game our team has to play," said Stars center Dave Gagner, whose second-period goal gave his team a 2-0 lead. "When we get great goaltending and solid defense like we did tonight, we're tough to beat."

Nikolai Borschevsky, Gagner and Todd Harvey got goals in each period and Hatcher had two assists as the Stars climbed to the .500 mark (3-3-2). Wakaluk (2-1-2) and the Dallas penalty killers turned away Buffalo seven times with the man advantage as Wakaluk continues to outplay No. 1 one goalie Andy Moog. "Our defense kept Buffalo on the perimeter and didn't allow them second chances," Wakaluk said. "As a team we're playing solid defense. It's a team game, not a personal game out there." Wakaluk, who started his career with the Buffalo organization, had his last shutout against Anaheim last March. "That's the kind of goaltending we need to win with," Gainey said. "Wakaluk's the one who's faced our problems and overcome them." The game had been under way for only 1:25 when Borschevsky beat Buffalo goalie Dominik Hasek to the stick side with a 20-foot drive. Borschevsky's first goal of the season and first in a Dallas uniform. Derian Hatcher had an assist on the goal, his career-high fifth straight game with an assist. "It was a good way to start," Gainey said. "It looked like he caught Hasek off guard or maybe napping." Buffalo's penalty-killers were able to survive a two-man disadvantage for 1:30 of the second period but Dallas boosted its lead to 2-0 with 2:08 to play in the period on Gagner's team-leading sixth goal of the season. Gagner was behind the defense when took a lead pass from Hatcher, skated in alone and beat Hasek. The Stars padded their lead to 3-0 :48 into the third period on Harvey's first goal of the season.
