Group runs to celebrate Marines 220th birthday

Local Marines, Naval ROTC and Platoon Leaders Course candidates will run through campus Friday to promote esprit 'de corps in celebration of the United States Marine Corps 220th birthday.

The run begins at 6 a.m. and will serve as a tribute to the traditions of valor and excellence the Marine Corps represents. The group's total mileage will be 220 miles.

Dr. Feibelman to address research positions

Dr. Peter J. Feibelman, author of the book A Ph.D. is Not Enough, will discuss how students can obtain a permanent research position tonight at 8 p.m. in 2104 Chemistry Building.

Feibelman will address entitlement, the scientific hierarchy and key topics.

Interested students are welcome to participate in small group discussions Friday and should contact Nancy Magnussen at 845-8015 or e-mail her at magnussen@chemvx.tamu.edu for time and locations.

Customs reports border drug seizures increase

(AP) — Increased enforcement efforts have led to a higher number of narcotics and drug-money seizures along the borders of Texas, Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma, U.S. Customs Service agents said Wednesday.

In the four-state area, currency seizures rose 31 percent from fiscal 1994 to 1995. Heroin seizures increased 11 percent, and marijuana seizures rose 2 percent. Cocaine seizures decreased by 5 percent.

Police arrest third suspect in Rabin assassination

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Suspecting that others may have encouraged the gunman who assassinated Yitzhak Rabin, the government on Wednesday described a new suspect as a "catalyst" for the attack and launched a crackdown on Jews who preach violence.

The new suspect, Avishai Raviv, head of the militant right-wing group Eyal, appeared before a magistrate Wednesday and was ordered held for seven days.

Police are investigating whether he knew in advance about Yigal Amir's plans to kill Rabin.

Amir, who has confessed to the shooting, and his older brother, Hagai, are already under arrest.
