49ers show heart of champion, rout Dallas

S.F. 49ers 38 Dallas Cowboys 20

IRVING (AP) — The defending Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers aren't dead. Just ask the shocked Dallas Cowboys after the crippled 14-point underdogs whipped them 38-20 on Sunday on their home field.

The 49ers, who had lost the last two games, even moved into a tie with St. Louis and Atlanta for the leadership in the NFC West with a 6-4 record. Dallas dropped to 8-2.

This was supposed to be a big revenge game for the Cowboys against the 49ers, who didn't have quarterback Steve Young for a fifth straight week because of a shoulder injury.

It was a rout, just as many predicted. Only it was the Cowboys who were outplayed and outcoached.

Second-string quarterback

Elvis Grbac and wide receiver Jerry Rice devastated Dallas on the game's first possession.

San Francisco stunned the Cowboys early, much as it did in the first 6:25 of the game. The 49ers went on to win 38-28 and eventually defeat San Diego in the Super Bowl.

Rice, the NFL's career leader in receiving, slipped open behind linebacker Darrin Smith for a slant pass over the middle from Grbac and steamed 81 yards for a touchdown on the second play of the game.

Rice had been involved in a pregame exchange of words with the Cowboys' $35 million cornerback Deion Sanders, a former 49er, who was lost in coverage at times by the clever San Francisco offensive sets.
