Lady Ags warm u for SWC Tourney

Senior middle blocker Dana Santleben digs the ball during the la cult Aggies' win over Baylor University at G. Rollie White Coliseum.

□ A&M will take on SWTSU in its season-finale tonight.

By Tom Day THE BATTALION

The Lady Aggie Volleyball Team has already accomplished its goal of winning 20 matches this season. The Aggies have also sewn up a second place finish in the Southwest Conference race and the accompanying No. 2 seed in the upcoming SWC

Tournament that goes with it. All that is left is the season finale at Southwest Texas State University tonight at 7 p.m. Having already beaten the Bobcats in three games in a match earlier this season and having little else to play for, it would seem A&M has nothing to do but look ahead. But senior outside hitter Andrea Williams said that is not in the Lady Aggies' plans. "We try to focus on each team one at a time," Williams said. "Even though we beat them pretty handily earlier in the year, we're definitely not looking past them. The Aggies (20-5) are com-different and improved team was since the 18th-ranked Aggies beat them on Sept. 23. The Bobcats have used a seven match winning streak to propell themselves to an impressive 14-4 mark in the South land Conference.

However, history is on A&M's side as the Aggies have posted a 14-3 series record against SWT and have won the last five matches.

Corbelli said the Lady Aggies have set several statistical goals for tonight's match. "We've only been hitting around 25 percent and we want to improve on that," Corbell said. "We also need to limi SWTSU to under 15 kills and improve on our blocking and floor defense.

Despite all the success A&M has experienced this season, Corbelli said the Lady Aggies are often tight out on the court. The Aggie coach hopes tonight's match will present an opportu nity for the Lady Aggies to loosen up and have fun.

"We're focused on SWT and the challenge of playing well and having fun at the same time." Corbelli said. "Even though we've been winning we're not always care free out there.

was able to win despite its unemotional effort.

"Our play on Saturday was average," Corbelli said. "We weren't playing extremely inspired since second-place had already been locked-up.

"But, we still played very steady and I was pleased with our second two games when we got ahead and stayed ahead."

Williams, who recorded match-high marks with 19 kills and a .472 hitting average against Rice last week, said the Lady Aggies' match-up with SWTSU should be a blessing rather than a burden with the SWC Tournament coming up pumping again."

"I want us to compete at our best, but still smile and have fun on the court.'

Still plagued by lingering mid-season blahs, Corbelli said this weekend's tournament should boost the team's spirt. "The mid-season took its to on us," Corbelli said. "We've had difficulty trying to stay in a motivated mood, but the tourna ment should get our adrenaline
