□ The A&M Volleyball Team finished its regular-season 21-5.

Staff and Wire Reports

The Texas A&M Volleyball Team concluded its regular season with a tough win over Southwest Texas State University Tuesday night, 15-7, 9-15, 15-4, 10-15 and 15-11.

The Lady Aggies moved to a 21-5 record on the season with the five-game win at SWTSU's Strahan Coliseum in San Marcos.

After splitting the first two games, the Lady Aggies jumped out to an 11-0 lead in Game Three and cruised to a 15-4 win.

But the Bobcats roared back in Game Four, notching six service aces to take the 15-10 win.

In the rally-score Game Five, the Bobcats leapt out to a 3-0 lead, but A&M charged back on an 11-4 run to sew up the victory and drop SWTSU to 19-14 on the season. The Lady Aggies were led as always by senior All-American candidate Suzy Wente, who notched a match-high 65 assists. Wente also contributed three block assists, 12 digs and four kills to the A&M cause. Sophomore middle blocker

Cindy VanderWoude was the Lady Aggies' big offensive producer, drilling 19 kills and leading the team with a .471 hitting percentage.

VanderWoude was supported on offense by senior outside hitter Andrea Williams, who contributed 13 kills and seven digs, and sophomore outside hitter Kristie Smedsrud who hit a double-double with 15 kills and 10 digs. A&M senior outside hitter in the match with 17 kills. As has been there norm throughout the season, the Lady Aggies' offensive production fluctuated greatly from game to game.

Dana Santleben led all players

In the first match — a 15-7 A&M win — the Lady Aggies outhit the Bobcats .415-.125 making just three error matched up against 20 kills. The next game saw a complete turn about for A&M, as they commit ted nine errors and recorded only 12 kills to total a lowly .09 hitting percentage. Game Three saw the Lady Aggies shoot back up to a .50 hitting percentage - a high for either team during the matchbut the squad plummeted back to .225 in their Game Four loss.

The Bobcats were led by middle blocker Shalanda Byers, who recorded 12 kills. Also contributing on SWTSU's attack was Lindsay Baxter, who totaled sinkills and a team-high six blocks.

The Aggies have already clinched second place in the Southwest Conference Tourna ment and will hold the No. 2 seed in the SWC Tournament this weekend at the University of Houston's Hofheinz Pavilion.

Mariners' Johnson grabs AL Cy Young

□The flame-throwing righthander went 18-2 and struck out 294 batters this year.

NEW YORK (AP) - Randy Johnson, whose intimidating fastball and improved control led the Seattle Mariners to the playoffs for the first time, overwhelmingly won his first AL Cy Young Award on Tuesday. Johnson got all but two of the 28 firstplace votes in becoming the first Seattle player to win a major postseason award in the team's 19year history. Johnson came within one victory of becoming the first AL player since Hal Newhouser of Triple Crown. Johnson went 18-2, led the majors in strikeouts for the fourth straight year with 294 and led the league with a 2.48 ERA. The 6-foot-10 left-hander, who combined his 100 mph fastball with the best control of his career, was the only pitcher listed on all 28 ballots and finished with 136 points in voting

by the Baseball Writers Associ-

Detroit in 1945 to win pitching's ation of America. Cleveland reliever Jose Mesa received the other two first-place votes and was runner-up with 54 points. Boston knuckleballer Tim lowed by 1994 winner David Cone, who finished the season with New York, with 18. Baltimore's Mike Mussina, who led the league with 19 wins, was fifth with 14.
