Elvis cruel in 49ers' rout of reeling Miami

□ Elvis Grbac riddled Miami's secondary for 382 yards.

MIAMI (AP) - Elvis Grbac and the San Francisco 49ers upstaged Dan Marino.

Grbac threw for 382 yards and four scores, negating two touchdown passes by Marino that tied Fran Tarkenton's career NFL record, and San Francisco produced another blowout at Joe Robbie Stadium by beating Miami 44-20 Monday night.

Even more lopsided than the 49ers' 49-26 rout of San Diego in last season's Super Bowl at Miami, the victory was especially impressive on the heels of their 38-20 romp past Dallas eight days earlier.

San Francisco (7-4) again won without injured quarterback Steve Young, who warmed up before the game but watched from the sideline while Grbac completed 31 of 41 passes. He improved to 3-2 as a starter this Marino, who broke Tarkenton's records for passing yardage and completions earlier this year in games Miami lost, completed 23 of 38 passes for 255 yards. The reeling Dolphins, who have lost five of their past seven games, fell two games behind AFC East leader Buffalo. The 49ers pulled into a first-place tie with Atlanta in the NFC West. Grbac riddled a Miami secondary plagued by dissension and breakdowns in recent weeks, throwing touchdown passes of 47 and 46 yards to Rice and 23 and 2 yards to Brent Jones. Rice extended his NFL record to 151 career touchdowns.
