Assault/Criminal Mischief

Memorial Student Center - In response to a disturbance on the second floor, the investigating officer found an unconscious subject on the floor. A large area of the ceiling tiles, framework and cables were apparently pulled down and destroyed during a fight. Witnesses at the scene reported two subjects repeatedly struck the victim before fleeing the area. The victim was transported to a local medical center for treatment.

Criminal Mischief

Kyle Field - Graffiti was found in several of the men's restrooms. The damage reportedly occurred two weeks ago.

Parking Area 50 - During patrol of campus property, a 10-foot tree at the north entrance of Parking Area 50 was found damaged. It appeared a vehicle backed against the tree and accelerated pushing the tree to the ground.

Parking Area 19 - The victim's 1986 Honda Prelude was damaged by someone throwing a beer bottle through the passenger's side window.

Wehner Building - A door on the northeast side of the building was damaged by someone prying the cover from the latch and locking mechanism.

Floriculture Field Laboratory - The facility was forcibly entered, and three light bulbs and a fluorescent light were broken. The suspect(s) also wrote graffiti on a table with a black felt tipped pen and sawed through one of the irrigation lines in the building.

Disorderly Conduct/Reckless Driving

While on his route, a bus driver attempted to pull into his stop, but found a pickup truck parked in his stop. He pulled along the left side of the pickup truck to allow his passengers to disembark. The owner of the pickup truck returned to his vehicle and began to pound on the bus and verbally abuse the bus driver with profane language. After being told he would have to wait until the passengers entered or left the bus, the owner of the pickup truck struck one of the passenger windows as he walked away. The bus pulled away from the stop and continued southbound on Throckmorton Street. The operator of the pickup truck twice pulled abruptly in front of the bus and hit his brakes causing the bus driver to take emergency evasive actions, endangering himself and passengers. An arrest warrant was issued to the driver of the truck.
