Rose Bowl fever hits Northwestern's campus

□ Campus phone lines were jammed for hours with ticket requests.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — There's only a week to go until final exams at Northwestern, the school known for having the brains of the Big Ten. The buzz on campus, however, isn't about tests, it's about Rose Bowl tickets. And how to get them.

With the once hapless Wildcats heading to Pasadena for the first time in over 40 years, pigskin fever has hit with a vengeance.

"Students are talking about football. That hasn't happened in nearly 50 years," said John Paynter, the school's director of bands who, as a student, cheered on the Wildcats at their last bowl appearance — the 1949 Rose Bowl.

The campus bookstore had to add more cash registers to handle all the sales of Northwestern sweatshirts, hats, pompons and T-shirts.

Vases of roses are plentiful around suburban Evanston. University flags flap in store windows.

Former students, including

Charlton Heston, Cindy Crawford and Ann-Margret, have voiced their support for the Wildcats on television.

And on Monday, so many California-dreaming fans jammed the phone lines to inquire about bowl tickets that the university voice mail system broke. That was the first day the university was open after Michigan's victory over Ohio State.

Pullig, Mitchell receive SWC honors

□ Both players excelled in the Aggies' 38-6 win over TCU Saturday.

DALLAS (AP) — Corey Pullig has spent a good portion of his career trying to prove he can do more than just handoff to the likes of Rodney Thomas and Leland McElroy.

The Texas A&M senior has battled the label of being a mediocre passer, and last Saturday in Amon Carter Stadium he showed that when the karma is correct, he can be brilliant.

Pullig completed a career-high 24 passes for 253 yards, including a 36-yard touchdown pass to Albert Connell, in A&M's 38-6 rout of the Texas Christian Horned Frogs.

It earned Pullig The Associated Press SWC Offensive Player of the Week award.

The Defensive Player of the Week laurel went to a Pullig teammate from the Wrecking Crew defense, Brandon Mitchell, who intercepted a Max Knake pass and returned it 48 yards for a touchdown.

It was the second time the defensive linemen had batted up a pass, caught it and scored a touchdown. He pulled the same trick last year against James Brown of Texas.

Connell, a junior college transfer, said it was the best he had seen Pullig throw the ball.

"He was right there every time," Connell said.

Pullig became A&M's career yardage passing leader. His 6,500 yards moves him ahead of Kevin Murray, who threw for 6,500 yards from 1983 to 1986.

"Corey had a tremendous game," said Texas A&M head coach R.C. Slocum. "That's what we've been looking for. When you complete passes like that, it makes all the difference in the world."
