MIAMI (AP) — Alonzo Mourning scored a season-high 38 points and pulled down 10 rebounds to lead the Miami Heat to its second straight come-frombehind victory, 111-89 over the Dallas Mavericks on Tuesday night.

Dallas, which began a six-game road trip, lost its sixth straight. The Heat came back from a seven-point halftime deficit to beat Vancouver 111-91 on Saturday.

Miami, off to its best start ever at 8-3, has beaten Dallas eight consecutive times. The Mavericks had 22 turnovers, and Miami converted them into 31 points.

Mourning's 4-foot hook shot at 5:02 of the third period gave the Heat its first lead since early in the first quarter at 68-67. Bimbo Coles then stripped the ball from Dallas' Jamal Mashburn and ran downcourt for a layup, starting a 16-5 run.

It was Mourning's strongest performance for the Heat, who acquired the center from Charlotte in a six-man deal just before the season began. In the fourth quarter as Miami pulled away, Mourning was laughing out loud as even his most off-balance shots went in the basket.

PI

He received a standing ovation from the crowd when he sat down with 3:38 left and the Heat ahead, 104-84.

While most of his teammates struggled during the first half, Mourning kept Miami in the game with 18 points.
