Anderson seeks big bucks, but not with Nets

□ The free agent guard turned down New Jersey's offer of $40 million over six years.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) — When Kenny Anderson first joined the NBA he said he thought only about dollar signs.

Five seasons later the New Jersey Nets guard said winning a championship is his first priority. But the second overall pick in the 1991 draft still has money on his mind.

Anderson, who becomes a free agent on July 1, turned down the Nets' offer of about $40 million over the next six seasons.

"When I first came into the league, I looked at money," Anderson told the Daily News on Tuesday. "But now I look where I am and what you're doing in terms of winning. I'm 25 years old and I've been in the league for five years. ... So I want a place where I can be productive and win a championship someday. That's what I have to look at."

What Anderson is looking at is a contract that would pay him close to the $7.5 million that teammate Derrick Coleman earns. Anderson is in the final year of his original five-year, $14.5 million deal.

Anderson's agent Richard Howell told the New York Post the point guard would consider returning to the Nets.

Anderson

"Kenny wants to focus this year only on playing basketball and he doesn't want any distractions during the season," Howell said. "He hasn't ruled New Jersey out. So if I were a Net fan, I'd take it as a sign that Kenny is concentrating on having his most productive season."

Nets general manager Willis Reed said "to lose a great point guard," like Anderon, "would be disastrous." "Here's a kid who said he wanted to be in New Jersey and we've made a tremendous offer to him," Reed told the Post. "They don't want it. They said no. It's always about money."

Anderson is averaging 12.3 points and 7.5 assists in eight games this season. He averaged 15.3 points and 7.8 assists in his previous four seasons.

Reed said "there are only three things we can do" with Anderson, who had 14 points and 11 assists Tuesday night in the Nets' 89-84 victory over Washington, "sign him, trade him or don't sign him and have his slot at the end of the year, which we don't want to do."

SNOOZE

You sleep through morning classes. And now you're gonna blow off the afternoon. The sad thing is, your parents have no clue. They think you're working hard. They're convinced you're busting your butt. They're so damn proud. If only they could see you now. Lying there like a lump. Suddenly guilt sets in. You feel so low. Quickly, you reach for the phone and surprise the folks with a call. Ahhh, now you can sleep in peace.
