CLASSES

through Friday from 9 a.m.-12 p.m. and 12:30-3:30 p.m. between Dec. 19 and Jan. 12. Students can take two classes in basic arreas such as accounting, economics, history, government, math, psychology, sociology, Spanish and speech. Registration is between Nov. 6 and Dec. 12.

The cost of the sessions is $168 for students living in the HISD or Stratford districts and $282 for out-of-district students. Students can register by calling the college at (713) 718-2000.

Sharon Gee, a Houston Community College information line assistant, said winter classes are usually popular with students.

"We have a lot of people who have registered for them this year and last year," Gee said.

First NATO troops arrive in former Yugoslavia

□ Two sergeants arrived in the area Monday to pave the way for the deployment of 20,000 more Americans.

SARAJEVO, Bosnia-Herzegovina (AP) — U.S. and European soldiers landed in the Balkans Monday, the first wave of advance troops for a 60,000-strong NATO peace mission that introduces American forces into the Bosnian conflict.

In a near-freezing drizzle, three camouflaged British C-130 Hercules transport planes touched down in Sarajevo carrying 28 NATO soldiers: French, British, Belgians and the first two Americans.

"We'll be setting up the headquarters for the bigger force to come down," said Sgt. Matthew Chipman, of Beardstown, Ill., who arrived with Sgt. Todd Eichmann, of Kansas City, Mo.

In Croatia, 56 British communications experts arrived in the port city of Split from Brueggen, Germany. Some will stay at Split, a key transit point for Bosnia. Others will head for Sarajevo and Tuzla.

The 2,600-soldier multinational "enabling troops" moving into Bosnia and Croatia will set up communications, plan transportation and arrange supplies in the 10 days before the signing of the agreement to end 3 1/2 years of war in the former Yugoslavia.

After Balkan leaders sign their accord Dec. 14 in Paris, NATO will start dispatching its massive peace-enforcing troops, one-third of which — or 20,000 — will be Americans.

Some lawmakers have concerns about U.S. participation. Members of Congress who visited Sarajevo over the weekend said both the Bosnian government and Serbian leadership had promised them U.S. soldiers will be safe, but that Bosnian Serb objections still worried them.

As part of the vanguard, the U.S. is sending 735 soldiers to Bosnia and 730 to Croatia, according to Pentagon figures. Defense Secretary William Perry said Monday in Washington that the entire enabling force would be in Bosnia or on its way by the end of the week.

Americans played supporting roles in the U.N. peacekeeping mission that the NATO-led force will replace — running a field hospital in Zagreb, Croatia, helping out with logistics in Bosnia and watching over Macedonia, the only republic to secede peacefully from Yugoslavia.

But these were low-risk jobs. The U.S. soldiers who will form the backbone of the NATO-led peace force will be potential targets, primarily of rebel Serbs unhappy with the terms of the peace agreement.
