much respect for the way they played."

Martinez was defeated by TCU's David Roditi 6-4, 6-4, but won his doubles match with Eric Horan against Ashley Fisher and Jason Weir-Smith, 8-6

With the loss, the Aggies drop to 14-4 on the season and 2-2 in conference. They will also be entering the Southwest Conference Champi onships as the No. 3 seed behind TCU and Texas, respectively.

Now the Aggies hope to reverse their fortunes when they face Rice today at the Omar Smith Tennis Complex and Baylor on April 16. The Southwest Conference

"They are one of the best teams in the nation, we will just have to uplift ourselves before the championships next week."

Some of the players felt that they could have played more solid games.

"We all made too many errors," senior captain Eduardo Martinez said. "Some of the shots we missed were too easy, which helped them take the win from us easily.

"I think we gave them too

Championships will be held on April 19-21 at the Potishman-Lard Tennis Center in Fort Worth. We have to go into the next two matches playing very well," Emley said. "We have strong doubles teams that are very crucial in determining our final score, so if everything goes right, we should pull off some wins.

"A bad day on Saturday should not effect the way we play this

Leading the way was Rosa Jolivet, who set a new track record of 13.18 seconds in the 200-meter run.

Staff and Wire Reports

Fast times and long hauls were the norm at the Aggie Invitational, held Saturday at the Anderson Track and Field Complex on Texas A&M's West Campus.

Eleven A&M competitors qualified either automatically or provisionally for the NCAA Championships during the Automatic qualifiers included Rickey Pfister and Curt Young in the 110-meter hurdles and Rosa Jolivet in the 200-m run.

Pfister ran a wind-aided 13.69 in the 110-m and Young finished a close second at Jolivet destroyed the standing meet and track record with a time of 13.18. The old track record was 13.38 by A&M's Anjanette Kirkland in 1995 -13.38 seconds.

In addition to the three automatic bids, A&M competitors also performed well enough to provisionally qualify.

Senior Tim Bryant sprang a wind-aided 25-7 1/2 in the long jump to take third in the meet. In the 1500-meter run, A&M's Scott Lengefeld took

The 100-m dash may have been the Aggie men's most powerful showing. A&M's B Fobbs took first with a wi aided 10.27 - good for a project sional qualification.

He was followed by Ag Michael Price, also a provisi al qualifier with a time

Rounding out the top five A&M were Toya Jones and h Bryant, who ran times of 10 and 10.56 respectively.

Young enjoyed a double of NCAA qualifications, a making it as a provisional qu ifier in the 400-m hurdles v a time of 50.40 — good for m with a question ond in the meet.

Price qualified by running first with a time of 20.74 into 200-m dash.

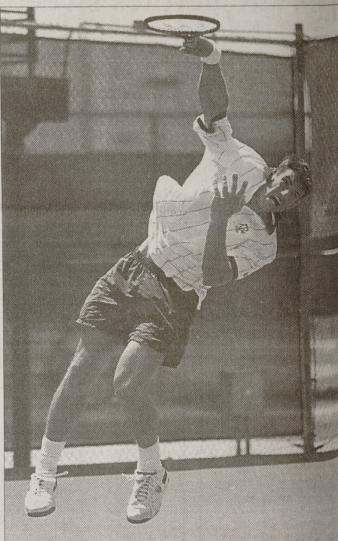

Although not qualifying for the NCAAs, the relay team Pfister, Young, Derrick Woo and Danny McCray took fr place in the 1600-m relay w a sparkling time of 3:09:12.2

Besides Jolivet, the wome team also saw Teri Tojtik Vanessa Garcia make it as pr visional qualifiers in the high jump.

Jovilet also qualified in 400-m hurdles with a tin 58.01 — good for second in meet and breaking her school record of 58.26 set ea third with a time of 4:03.12,
