

Enterprise Rent-A-Car the largest rental car company in North America, is currently interviewing for Management Trainees. As the market leader in the insurance-replacement market of automobile rental, we have experienced a 25% growth rate the past 8 years-currently operating 2,500 offices in the United States, Canada and Great Britain.

Due to our growth, we are currently seeking qualified candidates interested in a Sales/Management career to join our Management Trainee program. This program allows successful employees to move into management as quickly as 9 months after joining our company. You will actively participate in the customer service, sales and marketing, financial administration and fleet management of the rental location. Using this experience and your excellent performance you will be on your way to the top with our 100% promote-from-within company.

Ideal candidates will have a college degree, sales/customer service experience, professional image and an enthusiastic attitude. Candidates will have career opportunities in the Dallas/Fort Worth area.

Internships also available.

Interested Applicants should contact:
Human Resources Department
 Jenny Hanna
 152 Bank Street
 Southlake, Tx. 76092
 (817) 329-1112
 FAX (817) 329-0307

Rockets drain Lakers, 102-94

Houston will face Seattle beginning Saturday

HOUSTON (AP) — Hakeem Olajuwon scored 25 points, including two key baskets down the stretch, as the Houston Rockets beat the Los Angeles Lakers 102-94 Thursday night to win their opening-round series 3-1.

The Rockets, seeking their third straight NBA championship, will meet the winner of the Seattle-Sacramento series in the second round.

The Lakers cut Houston's lead to 91-86 on a jumper by Anthony Peeler with 4:28 left, but Olajuwon then made a baseline jumper and a hook shot to put the Rockets up 95-86 with 57 seconds remaining.

The Lakers pulled to 98-94 on a 3-pointer by Cedric Ceballos with 16 seconds left, but Sam Cassell made two free throws for Houston and Clyde Drexler capped the win with a steal and layup with six seconds remaining.

Kenny Smith scored 17 points for Houston on 6-for-6 shooting from the field, including 4-for-4 on 3-pointers. Robert Horry also had 17 points for the Rockets, and Chucky Brown added 16.

Ceballos led the Lakers with 25 points and 12 rebounds, while Elden Campbell and Nick Van Exel each had 15 points. The Rockets shut down Magic Johnson for the second straight game, holding him to eight points on 2-for-8 shooting and five assists.

Johnson, who played 32 regular-season games after coming out of retirement, was 0-for-3 in the second half and never was able to ignite the Lakers. He scored only seven points in Tuesday's 104-98 loss to the Rockets.

The Lakers, who trailed by seven points going into the fourth quarter, went scoreless for more than four minutes during one stretch in the final period. But the Rockets didn't take full advantage, scoring only six points during that time.

The Rockets, who hit 12 of their first 13 shots in Tuesday's victory, started out hot again, hitting nine of their first 10. Smith and Brown led the way with 10 points each.

Roenick, Winder lead Blackhawks

Chicago took a 1-0 lead over the Colorado Avalanche in the first round of their series.

DENVER (AP) — Jeremy Roenick scored a power-play goal at 6:29 of overtime, lifting the Chicago Blackhawks over the Colorado Avalanche 3-2 Thursday night in the opening game of an NHL Western Conference semifinal playoff series.

Game 2 is scheduled here Saturday night.

Colorado's Chris Simon went off at 4:39 of overtime for high-sticking, and Chicago converted its second power-play goal of the game.

Colorado's Uwe Krupp fell and lost control of the puck behind the net. The Blackhawks set up a play, and Tony Amonte sent a pass to Roenick inside the left circle. His 15-foot shot beat Patrick Roy, ending Roy's 12-game winning streak in overtime playoff games.

Chicago managed to kill off the remaining 1:38 of Chris Chelios' penalty to start the overtime. The Blackhawks now have killed all 27 opposition power plays in the playoffs.

Chicago's Enrico Ciccone had the only goal in a tight-checking first period that saw Colorado manage just two shots on goal compared to the Blackhawks' 10. The two shots — one of which was Claude Lemieux's carom off the right goalpost — marked the fewest in a period by the Avalanche all season.

Roy went sprawling to stop shots by Bob Probert and Brent Sutter and barely made it back on his skates when Ciccone sent a 20-foot wrist shot past the screened goalie at 2:02. It was Ciccone's first career playoff goal and point.

Big Gheorghe makes biggest improvement

LANDOVER, Md. (AP) — Gheorghe Muresan, the tallest player in the NBA at 7-foot-7, has a new label: Most improved player.

The Washington Bullets' center, who this season recorded career-high numbers in minutes, points, rebounds, assists, blocks and field goal percentage, on Thursday became the fourth Bullet in seven years to be win the league's most improved player award.

Playing in his third NBA season, the 7-foot-7 Muresan started the Bullets' first 76 games before a knee injury ended his season. He averaged 14.5 points and 9.5 rebounds per game and led the NBA with a .584 shooting percentage.

When he drafted Muresan three years ago, John Nash wasn't sure whether the Romanian would be good enough to make it to the NBA. He certainly didn't expect Muresan to be this good this early.

Nash was wrong on both accounts.

"Each night I try hard. I have more good nights than bad," said Muresan, whose improvement was a big reason why the Bullets won 18 more games this season than last. "Lots of people tell me I can't play in NBA, but I tried to work hard to show I can."

Even his English has improved. On the night Nash made Muresan the 30th overall pick in the 1993 NBA draft, Muresan quickly learned his first four words of English. With the cameras rolling, he said, "I love this game."

Nash, who resigned as general manager Tuesday, figured he had nothing to lose by using a second-round pick on a player who could touch the rim without leaving his feet.

"I wasn't sure when we drafted him that he would be in a Bullets uniform at this time. I thought he'd stay in Europe for at least three seasons," Nash said last month. "He's made progress well beyond what I could have envisioned."

Muresan added 4.5 points to his scoring average this season and tallied nearly three more rebounds and six more minutes per game. He shot better than 50 percent in 58 of 76 games and finished eighth in the league in blocks.

"When he raises his arms up, he's 12 feet tall. It's intimidating," Washington forward Juwan Howard said. "I'm glad he's on my team."

Nash said the best is yet to come for Muresan.

"Gheorghe is going to continue to get better," Nash said. "Right now he's among the top 10 centers in the league, and I think he's got a chance to be in the top six. He could turn out to be one of the dominant players in this league."

Muresan joins a string of Bullets to claim the award this decade. Harvey Grant got it in 1989-90; Pervis Ellison took the trophy home in 1991-92 and Don MacLean won it in 1993-94.

UNIQUE FINE ART GIFTS FROM $20

GRADUATION & DIPLOMA FRAMING MOTHER'S DAY
BENJAMIN KNOX GALLERY
 696-KNOX 404 UNIVERSITY DR. C.S. (NEXT TO TCBY)

Keeping up with the Games anywhere else is like long jumping with one leg tied behind your back.

Jack in any other site for the word on the summer Games and you'll be sorry. Big time. Brought to you by The Interactive Studio at The Atlanta-Journal Constitution, Atlanta Games is the only web site that goes the distance. We've got 300 journalists on the case to bring you the latest record-breakers. Between events, chat with the natives on "Hey Atlanta" or hook-up with international web surfers. Atlanta Games. Proof that when it comes to the games, it pays to look before you leap.

ATLANTA GAMES

www.atlantagames.com

What are YOU gonna do this summer?

This summer, get an edge on your graduate school or career plans with The Princeton Review. Our small classes, personal attention, and unparalleled service have earned us a national reputation as the number one prep course in the country.

It's a competitive world out there. You owe it to yourself to gain every possible advantage.

THE PRINCETON REVIEW

Get an edge.

LSAT • MCAT • GRE • GMAT • MBE • TOEFL • USMLE • Career Development • Courses • Books • Software

| Summer 1996 Courses | | |
|---------------------|------------|-------------|
| Course # | Start Date | Meetings |
| LSAT #392 | 6/8 | Sun/Thurs |
| LSAT #402 | 7/13 | Sun/Wed |
| MCAT #274 | 6/1 | Sat/Tues |
| MCAT #284 | 6/8 | Sun/Thurs |
| MCAT #294 | 6/8 | Mon/Wed/Fri |
| GRE CAT #055 | 6/8 | Sat/Sun |
| GRE CAT #065 | 7/20 | Mon/Thurs |
| GRE P&P #075 | 8/31 | Sun/Wed |
| GMAT #857 | 5/11 | Sun/Thurs |
| GMAT #867 | 6/15 | Sun/Wed |
| Career #033 | 5/7 | Tues |
| Career #044 | 6/11 | Tues/Thurs |

For more information or to reserve your space, call (800) 2-REVIEW email: info.cs@review.com