Rodriguez powers Rangers to win

Rodriguez hit two homers, leading Kevin Gross and the Texas Rangers past the Baltimore Orioles 5-2 Tuesday night.

Brady Anderson hit his 26th homer, most in the majors, for the Orioles. But Baltimore lost for the ninth time in 12 games against Texas this season.

Gross (8-5) pitched 8 1-3 innings, allowing seven hits and one walk while striking out five.
Gross won for the third time in four starts. Last sea-son, Gross did not win his eighth game until his 26th start on Sept. 9. Mike Henneman got the last two outs for his 19th save. Texas took a 2-1 lead in the when Rodriguez hit a 420-foot home run. Rodriguez hit his ninth homer of the season in the seventh for a 5-1 edge.

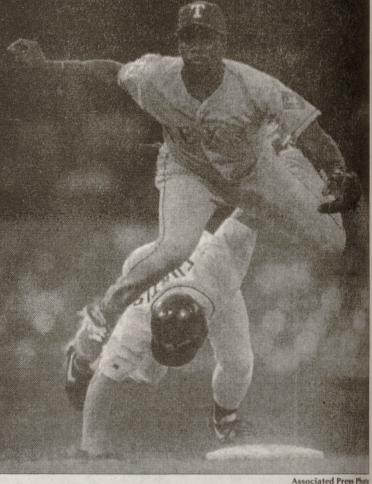

third against David Wells (4-7)

Rodriguez had his third twohomer game of the year. Anderson homered in the eighth.

The Rangers loaded the bases in the fourth on consecutive singles by Mickey Tettleton, Rusty Greer and Mark McLemore. Kevin Elster's two-run single put Texas ahead 4-1.

Bobby Bonilla doubled home a run for the Orioles in the first. Texas took advantage of three walks in the second, tying it at 1 on Greer's sacrifice fly. Wells allowed five runs and eight hits in 6 2-3 innings, with one strikeout and four walks. He lost for the fourth time in five decisions.

Olajuwon addresses Barkley trade rumors fueled that re-

Barkley's abili ties, and the fever pitch.

HOUSTON (AP) — Hakeem Olajuwon has heard the hopeful speculation buzzing around town regarding the Houston Rockets' reported efforts to trade for Charles Barkley. Now the Rockets center wants to hear what Sir Charles has to say about the possibility that a mini-Dream Team of Barkley, Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler might convene to bring the Rockets another NBA championship.

'It would be nice to hear from Barkley himself what he's thinking," Olajuwon said Tuesday. Barkley is an asset. To have Barkley on the team, on any team, is an asset." Olajuwon will have a chance to hear Barkley's thoughts next week, when Dream Team III gathers in Chicago to begin practice for the Olympic Games. Barkley, 33, has asked the Phoenix Suns to trade him to a team last week cleared room under its salary cap by trading Tim Breaux and Pete Chilcutt to the Vancouver Grizzlies. Then on Tuesday, the Houston Chronicle published an altered team that has a chance to win three-column photo of Barkley in the NBA title, namely Chicago, Indiana, New York or Houston. Rockets uniform under the head line, "If the uniform fits ..."

BARKLEY

The Chronicle also cited unnamed Suns sources as saying Barkley will be traded this summer, and Houston is the leading candidate to land him. Any such move would likely not come until after next Monday, when the NBA salary cap goes up to $24.3 million, the newspaper said. Amid all the excitement, it seems the only question remaining for radio talk show callers and sports pundits, anyway — is which two or three Rockets should be traded for Barkley. Robert Horry Sam Cassell? Mark Bryant? "I was listening to the radio," Olajuwon said. "Now everybody becomes an expert ... But this is a very difficult situation, especially for the decision-maker, because this is a bold move. It has to be the right move. That is a big responsibility.

Astros' long balls spell doom for Padres, 9-4

SAN DIEGO (AP) - Sean Berry hit his second grand slam in his last 10 games and Derek Bell and Orlando Miller also homered as the Houston Astros routed the San Diego Padres 9-4

Tuesday night. Berry hit a 2-2 pitch from Doug Bochtler into the left-field seats with one out in the eighth inning for his third career grand slam. He also hit a grand slam June 13 off Mark Leiter at San Francisco.

The Astros scored five runs on one hit in the eighth. Loser Scott Sanders (1-2) was tagged for four of the runs, three earned, and three walks, two intentional, in just one-third of an inning.

Former Padres shortstop Rickey Gutierrez, who drew a leadoff walk off Sanders in the eighth, scored the go-ahead run on third baseman Ken Caminiti's throwing error. Jeff Bagwell and Derek Bell were intentionally walked before Bochtler relieved Sanders and served up Berry's home run ball.

Todd Jones (6-1) allowed two hits in 2 1-3 innings for the victory. The Astros took a 4-1 lead on a two-run homer by Bell, another former Padres player, and a solo shot by Miller, both off Bob Tewksbury. But the Padres scored three runs in the seventh, two on Caminiti's double, to tie the game at 4 and chase Mike Hampton. Berry's fielding error in the seventh made all three Padres runs unearned. Miller's sixth homer, with two outs in the fifth, reached the seats in left-center and gave Houston a 3-2 lead.
