A&M band maps out with debut album

By April Towery THE BATTALION

In a town where talented blues bands are few and far between, The Maps have proved to be the best blues band Bryan-College Station has seen.

What makes The Maps different is the emphasis placed on the music, rather than the lyrics and vocals. The Maps, an all-

Aggie band, formed in September 1995 to create a group different from the local bands. Guitarist/vocalist Kenneth S. Tramm has been aching to get a successful "jazzy- bluesy-rock" band together for quite a while. In his classes in high school and at A&M, he used to draw maps of the fretboard of a guitar in his classes, giving the band its name. Tramm projects a funky blues sound through his rhythmic guitar skill. The sound is supplemented by drummer/percussionist Gabriel Cortinas and bassist/backup vocalist Herb Mayfield. Cortinas, who is also a drummer for the local band Lewis, is energetic and versatile, adding to Mayfield's funky, meticulous bass technique. The Maps recorded its first, 13-song album, Directional Overtones, in April and May. The al-soon be distributed state and eventually national Midwest Records.

The album is brilli mixed by conveying all t fects of live music. In far album version of the song way" is the first time the ever performed it.

An inscription inside to bum cover says, "We wa these songs to be as v and non-sterile as who play live. We left all of ou takes, emotions and so there. We hope you can fin of that in there, too." The talent of The Maps

dent in its instrumental "16 Bad Pennies," "Willy ka," "Buddy's El Cam

The Maps are a thrill live because of the effe good loud music. The plays to please the au not to glorify themselves. riety of ages can enjoy band's music because i sionally plays covers of "oldies," such as the classi cret Agent Man."

The Maps has received siderable radio coverage an taken its show on the ro several clubs in Housto Austin, including the Sou Southwest Showcase

The band has display credible talent and pol with Directional Over This album is definitely hold onto.

The Maps will be playing gust 1 at the Dixie Theatre bum has already been released in local record stores and will

SCOTT&WHITE

July 1996

Dear Scott & White Health Plan Member:

To provide personalized, comprehensive, high quality health care at a reasonable cost is the mission of the Scott & White Health Plan. In order for us to realize our mission in Bryan/College Station, it has become necessary for the Scott & White Health Plan to re-evaluate its relationship with both Brazos County hospitals. Effective September 1, 1996, the St. Joseph Regional Health Center in Bryan will be the exclusive provider of inpatient health care services for our membership in Bryan/College Station. The Health Plan has made this decision only after a great deal of thought and analysis.

We hope you will appreciate our desire to stay on course with our mission which is to provide you and your family with personalized, comprehensive, high quality health care at a reasonable cost. We believe our partnership with the St. Joseph Regional Health Center helps us accomplish this. If you have any further questions or comments, please call our Bryan/College Station Health Plan Office at 409-268-7947 or 1-800-791-8777.

Sincerely,

John W. Roberts, M.D. President
