SPORTS

Atlanta '96

U.S. Softball pans first Olympic gold

ATLANTA (AP) — Tuesday, Day 12

GOING DEEP

United States ended round-robin play with 17-1 victory over the Netherlands. Travis Lee hit 100th home run of tournament; only 45 homers were hit in 1992 Barcelona Games.

1-FOR-2

Top seed Andre Agassi advanced to semifinals with 7-5, 4-6, '-5 victory over South African Wayne Ferreira despite losing point for cursing. American Mali-Vai Washington, seeded No. 4, lost to unseeded Sergi Bruguera of Spain 7-6 (10-8), 4-6, 7-5.

SETTING A PRECEDENT

U.S. Softball Team defeated China 3-1 for the gold medal of a new Olympic sport.

THREE AND OUT

The U.S. Women's Volleyball team suffered a straight-set loss to the Cubans in the quarterfinals.

QUOTEBOOK

"I think we should play all three of those teams today and then get the hell out of town." — Charles Barkley, concerned about security, on the Dream Team prospects in the medals round.

AGGIE SPOTLIGHT

nova

W Pa

est I.D.

nput

In USA Base-ball's 17-1 win over The Netherlands, Chad Allen went 2-for-5 with a double, one run cored and 4

Cumulative Stats (through 38 games)

AB R H HR RBI AVG.

117 30 49 6 29

ATLANTA (AP) — For Lisa Fernandez and her U.S. softball teammates, one gold medal was enough. For Carl Lewis, nine proved insufficient.

For the Dream Team, a gold appeared inevitable.

SOFTBALL

The American softball team did what it was supposed to do Tuesday: Win the gold medal in the first Olympic competition in their sport. The favored Americans, behind a controversial tworun homer from Dot Richardson, defeated China 3-1 for the Olympic title.

"It's sweet when you have to get down and reach deep inside and give it everything you have," said Richardson, whose homer just inside the right field foul pole gave the Americans an early lead. "And then you can say you did it."

Fastballer Fernandez, the winner in Monday's comifficel elegad.

ner in Monday's semifinal, closed out the game with a strikeout in relief. Fernandez, screaming and jumping on the mound, tossed her glove in jubilation before she was buried in a pile beneath her team-

CARL LEWIS

Lewis, one day after cementing his position among the all-time Olympic greats, did what he does second best: start controversy. The four-time Olympic long jump champion lobbied for a spot on the 400-meter relay team and a shot at a record 10th gold.

He and Mark Spitz now share the U.S. mark of nine.

"People want me to run the relay and they think I have the right to run," Lewis said — a stance that didn't go over well with the four runners currently Dennis Mitchell, who will handle the anchor leg once run by Lewis, said: "To put Carl on, you've got to take somebody off. And that's not cool, man. ... Carl's had his moment, let me have

BOXING

Boxer Nate Jones and everybody else competing in Atlanta's final five days share Lewis' lust for gold — well, everybody but those unlucky hoopsters who must play the guaranteed-gold Dream Team.

"I don't want no bronze medal," the 23-year-old Jones said Tuesday, when he and two teammates guaranteed themselves at least that by moving into the boxing semifinals.

Boxer Terrance Cauthen was cocky about his chances of going home with gold.

"My hook was picture perfect," he declared after beating Thailand's Veongviact

Phongsit, "and so was the jab."

Boxer Albert Guardado Jr., the first American in the ring Tuesday, will settle for Atlanta grits instead of gold. He was a quarterfinals loser, de-feated 19-14 by Ukranian flyweight Oleg Kiryukhin. Teammates Jones, at 201 pounds, Cauthen, at 132 pounds, and Rhoshii Wells, at 165 pounds, fared much better in moving on to the semifinals.

Winners in those bouts will fight for the gold, while the losers both collect bronze.

The other Olympic boxing news came from Miami, where a Cuban trainer who criticized his country's training methods announced his defection. Mariano Leyva, a 13-year veteran of the Cuban national boxing team, had disappeared from Atlanta on Saturday.

"I had certain problems back home, so I decided I had to stay for my freedom," Leyva said. "I was afraid they would try to squash me.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

The Dream Teamers rolled over Oscar Schmidt and Brazil, 98-75, for their sixth easy Olympic victory and a spot in Thursday's

One of the possible bumps

United States gymnast Shannon Miller demonstrated her awardwinning talents at Tuesday's gold medalists exhibition.

in the U.S. road to a medal was eliminated when Australia, led by former Seton Hall star Andrew Gaze's 26 points, stunned Toni Kukoc and defending silver medalist Croatia, 73-71 bounded China 128-61, and Lithuania routed Greece 99-66 Tuesday. They'll play in the other semifinals.

TENNIS

Mr. Image, Andre Agassi, staged a late comeback to get within one win of a medal in the men's singles. Wimbledon finalist MalaVai Washington, who at one point was serving for the match, instead collapsed and was ousted by unseeded Spaniard Sergi Bruguera 7-6 (10-8), 4-6, 7-5.

Medals table

Through Tuesday, July 30

Country	G	S	B	Total
United States	25	28	32
Russia	19	14	8
Germany	10	12	19	41
China	12	15	8
Australia	7	9	18	34
France	13	8	13	32
Italy	11	6		26
Romania	4	5	6
Cuba Canada Poland	3 2 6	5 7 5 3 3 2 5 4 4 2 2 3 3 3 3 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2	7 6 3	15
Canada	2	7	6	15 14 13 13
Poland	6	5	3	14
Hungary	4 5 3	3	6	13
Netherlands	2	3	8	13
Ukraine	5	2	5	12
South Korea	3	5	4	12
Belarus	1	4	7	12
Japan	3	4	3	10
Brazil	3 2 1	2	5	9
Britain	1	3	5	9
Bulgaria	0	4	4	8 7 6
Greece	4	3	O	7
New Zealand	3	2	1	6
Belgium	3	2	2	6
Kazakstan	2	3	1	6
Spain	2	1	2	5
Switzerland	3	1	C	4
Ireland	3	0	1	4
Turkey	3	0	1	4
Czech Repub.		2		4
G-Gold, S-Silver, B-E

Agassi, who was penalized twice for scatological complaints about officiating, did just the opposite.

Trailing 5-3 in the decisive third set, he came on to post a 7-5, 4-6, 7-5 victory over Wayne Ferreira of South Africa.

"Mal served for it and lost," Agassi said. "My opponent served for it, and I ended up winning. You've got to figure

See Olympics, Page 4

Aggie Football newcomers report for duty —

THE BATTALION

Although the start of fall classes is still over a month away, the A&M Football Team is already getting back into the swing of things.

All but four players in the 1996 recruiting class, along with eight walkon students, reported to campus Tuesday to begin preparations for the Aggies' Aug. 24 contest with Brigham Young University in the Pigskin Classic in Provo, Utah. Delvin Wright of Lancaster High School, Jeff Wilson of Temple, Adren Dudley from Blinn Junior College, and Eric Jennings from Mt. San An-tonio Junior College did not report due to minor technicalities in paperwork and grades.

However, coach R.C. Slocum is confident they will be able to join the team soon.

"They are not in yet, but we anticipate that they will be in (soon)," Slocum said. "I learned a long time ago not to get frustrated about things that we don't have control over.

The part we have control over we've done. Director of Football Operations

Tim Cassidy said Aggie freshmen and players transferring from other colleges have reported two days before the varsity to attend academic orientation and undergo physicals.

They will begin practice on Thursday. "It's always an exciting time of the year when you're bringing in the new guys," Slocum said.

The varsity is expected to report

Thursday evening and will join the newcomers in two-a-day workouts beginning Saturday. The returners will undergo physical examinations and will attend an NCAA compliance meeting Friday.

This year's early reporting date

(July 30) because of the early-season BYU game is the second earliest reporting date in Aggie Football history. In 1992, the players checked in on July 29 in preparation for the Aug. 26 Disneyland Pigskin Classic against Stanford.

Secondary coach Larry Slade said preparing for such an early game is demanding for players and coaches.

"It's a little bit different getting ready to play this early," Slade said. "We're looking forward to it and taking it as a challenge. The (BYU) game is the first game played in the nation, and there is a little bit more sense of urgency.

Three of the four starters from last year's secondary were lost over the off-season - cornerback Ray Mickens and safety Dennis Allen graduated, and Typail McMullen was dismissed for violating unspecified team rules.

The coaching staff has high hopes will help fill the void in the defensive backfield.

Slade said this will have to happen quickly for the Aggies to compete against strong passing teams like BYU.

"A&M has a tradition for playing real good in the secondary, and we will continue that tradition," Slade said. "We're going to count on those guys playing early. There's a good chance of seeing one of [them] playing in the BYU game."

Slade said the Aggies' fortune lies heavily on the play of cornerback Donovan Greer. The senior will have to come back from knee surgery that kept him sidelined during spring workouts.

"Donovan Greer's time has come,"
Slade said. "The baton has been passed down to him to become a great cornerback. We need leadership out of him for our very young secondary.

Messina Hof's Harvest Fuuun Starts This Weekend

This could be the best party you'll have all summer.

Fuuun Saturdays & Sundays Your fuuun day could start with a stroll in the vineyards, grape picking and stomping (sign your T-shirt with your feet), a delicious European Harvest Luncheon feast and a Wine & Food Pairing Seminar. Plus fuuun free tours and wine tastings all day. Don't miss the fuuun of Harvest. Reservations or more info, call the Harvest Hotline at 778-9463.

Fuuun Sunset Concerts This Saturday night, enjoy the soulful sounds of Eugene-Eugene... a jazz band so good they named it twice. Imagine the romance, the vineyard view, the sunset, the starry night. Music starts at 8 p.m. and you can get it all for only $7. ($8/Gate) More info or reservations, call Designer Events'

Harvest Hotline at 778-9463.

1996-97 All-University Calendar

- Monthly Calendars
- Yearly Calendars
- Name & Address Section ·Class Schedule Grids
- Campus Events
- Meeting Times •Aggie Problem Solver
- •Campus Map
- Aggie Songs
- ·Aggie Code of Honor
- University Center Map & Info ·Leadership Class List

At the Texas A&M Bookstore

Low in Cost, High in Results That's Classified. Read and Use Them.

THE BATTALION